

Congratulations Jeannette Hogan, Kathie Moulton, Rita Towne, Alice Harding, Patty Melvin, Carol Fleck & Lisa Moren who redesigned the WC Horse Program that balances showing and non-showing opportunities for end of year special awards. The horse committee along with Caitlin Janus successfully planned and mounted the annual WC Open 4H Horse Show that took place at Towne Ayr Farm on July 29th.

Six year old Andre Latullipe of the WC 4H Gardening Club, exhibits his Blue Ribbon tomatoes at the Barre Grown Gardening Club completed its 31st year in partnership with the Central Vermont Rotary Club. Callie Streeter of the Horse of Course club, (Right) takes a joy ride after the Horse Show at Towne Ayr Farm.

Congratulations Willa Neal (far left) and Kate Harrington of the Trailblazers who are heading to the 4H National RoundUp in Kentucky this Fall to represent the VT State 4H Horse Quiz team. Below, Johan Fillbach of the 4H Gardening Club, gives a demonstration on milk fed pumpkins at the Agway Garden Exhibit.

Congratulations to the Partridge Hill Horse Lovers V X F F H V V I X O D F W L R Q H [K L E L Y Big E this year! From Jaylyn Whitaker, Katie LaForte, Mariah Harding, Abbi Manning, Jade Bradfield, Emily Harding. Kudos to club leader Carol Fleck, Alice Harding and Patty Melvin for their leadership and guidance.

What do you do if you like the theater and want to volunteer for 4H? Dorothy Hedges (right), dresses up as a bunch of grapes and greets the Market. Congratulations to Alex Knudsen (below) who gave a demonstration on how to keep deer out of your garden at the 4H Garden Banquet and Auction.

Congratulations Bethany Towne of the Horse of Course Club (upper left) and Leah Thomas (upper right) of the Cedar Ridge Riders who were chosen as teen leaders for the Big E Vermont Horse team.

Upcoming Events
October 14 J.P North Auction/Towne Ayr Farm 1pm
November 9 WC Achievement Night. Barre Town School. 6:30pm