

Code of Conduct

- A club will be considered in good standing with the SGA if all of the following are correct;
- they act in accordance with the university common ground,
- they have not violated any university policy, (refer to the Cat's Tale for a complete guide to university policies)
- they conduct meetings that are open to UVM students who are members of the Student Government Association,
- they adhere to the Student Government Association Constitution,
- they have an active student membership roster of 10 or more (at least 8 not including the exec. board)
- they conduct at least two meetings a month that are open to all members, not including executive meetings. (practice for athletic type clubs i.e. soccer, crew, judo, etc. will constitute a meeting)
- they have acted in accordance to all risk management policies and procedures
- they have submitted monthly report forms to the student activity committee by the 5th of every month while the University is in session
- they have updated contact information for their current president, treasurer and advisor
- they follow all financial policies as set forth by the Student Government Finance Committee and SGA Treasurer
- they have benefited the university by contributing to the overall social atmosphere.

Any club that does not adhere to these guidelines set forth by the Student Activities Committee is considered not to be in good standing with the SGA and is subject to the sanctions outlined in Article VII Section 8 of the SGA Constitution.

Any question of inactivity should refer to Section 8 of the Student Government Association Constitution, the guidelines set forth within Article VII Section 8 part A and B concerning inactivity will be upheld by the Student Activity Committee and the proper sanctions will be imposed.