Do you ever find yourself slowing down because of bikers on the road? Are you afraid that the growing biking coalition will impact your commuting time?

This research project presents an analysis of the impacts of bike lanes on average driver speeds on Burlington roadways, as well as the impact of cyclist presence on speed of traffic.