

8th Annual VGN Professional Development Workshop: Streamlined Productivity

Saturday, March 29, 2014

This year our workshop focuses on streamlined productivity for academic success. All of our funded faculty are expected to attend. Other faculty, postdocs and graduate students are also welcome. Learn about “productivity without overwhelm” and how it can benefit your research.

• Continental Breakfast and Lunch will be provided

This year's keynote speaker:

Porter Knight, Founding Partner, Productivity Vermont

Porter is a dynamic and popular presenter, life-changing consultant, and author of two books: Organized to Last: 5 Simple Steps to Staying Organized and Get Paid to Win

Clients: Public Speaking as a Marketing Tool. A nationally-recognized industry leader, she was one of the first in the nation to achieve the credential of Certified Professional

Organizer®, and developed the industry's flagship education courses, “Introduction to Professional Organizing” and “Starting an Organizing Business.”

An active member of the National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO), she has been one of NAPO's most popular conference presenters, and has twice been nominated for the prestigious “Founders Award.”

- Registration: 9:30—10:00 am
- Program: 10:00—2:30pm
- Place: 206 Bentley Hall, Johnson State College

Please RSVP by March 24, 2014

To RSVP email the following information to: vgn@uvm.edu

- Name
- Institution/Affiliation
- Department

