

for the alleviation of suffering, including a complete X-ray outfit and equipment for electrical therapeutics. During the month of April will be held there the eleventh annual clinic; the fourth annual meeting of the John A. Andrew Clinical Society; and post-graduate courses in medicine, surgery, and nurse training.

AN invitation has been received recently from Hervalin H. Hamilton, '16, by the members of the Agricultural School staff, to be present at a Farmers' Conference and Corn Exhibit at the Halifax County Training School in Print, N. C. Mr. Hamilton is the principal and teacher of agriculture at this school.

ONE of last year's graduates, Lawrence A. Potts, writes from Ames Agricultural College, which he entered last September, that he enjoys his work very much. He says it is very hard but interesting. While many were dropped after the first examination he came through with credit to himself and Hampton. He says, "Less than an hour ago I came from my first wrestling match. It is great sport. * * * The Farmers' Short Course ended yesterday. Classroom work did not cease, but I had a little extra time for two days and used it for picking up new ideas."

A classmate, James W. Smothers, has written from the Galilee High School, Huntsville, Texas, saying: "I am sending you two snaps of my class in agriculture. These boys are members of the 6th, 7th, 8th, and 9th grades. I have an Animal Husbandry class in the 10th and 11th grades." He reports with enthusiasm on all phases of his work in classroom, shop, and school athletics.

MARRIAGES

THE recent marriage of Bettie S. Harmon, '18, to Mr. George P. Brickhouse of Franktown, Va., has been announced. Mrs. Brickhouse is housekeeping and continuing her teaching in the second and third grades of the Hare Valley school.

ANOTHER recent marriage is that of George A. Scott, 1915, to Martha Roane, ex-student of 1908. They are living at Thornton, Ark., where Mr. Scott is teacher of Smith-Hughes agriculture.

DEATHS

THE sad news of the death of George G. Williams, '21, has been received. He was graduated in February of last year, and returned to Hampton in May to attend the Commencement exercises. Mr. Williams had planned to take up the teaching profession, and his untimely death is a great loss.

THE death of Paul Brown, '13, on January 29 after a very short illness came as a shock to his family and friends. He leaves a wife and two children. During the World War he worked in the Brooklyn Navy Yard and more recently has been in the post-office department in Brooklyn. His brother, Vernal S. Brown, Business 1913, is employed in the Treasurer's Office, Hampton Institute.

A letter announces the death last summer of Mrs. Robert W. Clemmons (Sarah C. Campbell, 1911) in Boise, Idaho. After her graduation she taught for a few years at the Penn School, and then for a number of years was industrial supervisor in Middlesex County, Va., where she did much to help rural conditions in the community.

WORD has been received of the death of Beverly F. Thornton, 1882, on January 8, at his home in Winooski, Vermont. Mr. Thornton came to Hampton from Gloucester, Va., and after graduating taught in the schools of both Gloucester and Lunenburg Counties. Later he joined