

Experience learning in an atmosphere that facilitates your ability to *think *discuss *ask questions of interdisciplinary and leadership faculty across UVM and community agencies.

NOTE: Tuition scholarships available for continuing education registrants; call 802-656-0204 for info.

- Enjoy an intimate class size with multiple faculty
- Focus your learning on your interests/concerns
- Learn from people with experience and knowledge

Former students describe their CMSI 311 seminar experience as:

Providing “a ‘world’ perspective about...culturally competent services and the importance of interdisciplinary work that incorporates one’s own spiritual, cultural, linguistic, and health practices.”

Learning to “delve deeper into the issues and have time to think about these issues...integrating readings, lectures and experiences”

LOCATION: On campus (Room 408 Lafayette) and Distance Learning Sites: Berlin, Newport,
Springfield & St. Albans

DAY & TIME: Thursdays, 5:00-8:00 pm

FIRST CLASS BEGINS: September 4, 2008

Topics for fall semester 2008 include:

- Interdisciplinary Collaboration
- Neurodevelopmental Disabilities
- Family-Centered Care
- American-Indian Concepts of Health and Disability
- Policy Concepts and Processes
- Environmental Health Factors Motor Disabilities
- Motor Disabilities
- Autism
- Supporting Families and Providers
- Health Disparities in Cultural Groups
- Serving Immigrant & Refugee Families
- Policy Concepts & Practices

Who might be interested?

- Graduate Students, Community Professionals from Health, Education and Human Services & Families.

NOTE: Tuition scholarships available for continuing education registrants; call 802-656-0204 for info.

For further information, contact the VT-ILEHP Program office at 656-0204.

Cross-listed in several departments!
Register through your home department or Continuing Education (<http://learn.uvm.edu>).