On Friday, March 11, YouTube was hit with two new viral sensations. The first stat-to-be is now the most watched video of the week, and hopefully you know her name by now. Thanks to her, we're now aware that after school is out for the year, there's a little girl who's become a hit on YouTube— and her weekend anthem is now your weekend anthem.

The hitmaker is none other than Rebecca Black, and if you're like me, her hit song "Friday" (deemed "the worst song in music history") is now your weekend anthem. She had better intentions during the filming of her video, as Rebecca says, "Think about fun. You know what it is." But the question is still asked— should free speech be "limitless"? Where do we draw the line?

French officials made the wise decision of charging him with the crime of hate speech. It seems unbelievable, but many countries in Europe and Asia, along with Australia and New Zealand, take legal action against individuals that engage in "communication that disparages a person or group on the basis of some characteristic such as... race, gender, ethnicity, nationality, religion, or sexual orientation." Galliano has been charged with such an offense, and if found guilty, could serve half a year in prison and be fined the equivalent of $30,000. Galliano was immediately fired from Dior.

Outside of America, though, Ms. Wallace and Pamela may have been given a whole lot more than a mass of pissed-off YouTube comments. After Christian Dior designer John Galliano made a drunken mess of himself at a French café, proclaiming his supposed love for Hitler— and upload, and in many cases, their anonymity is just as easy to maintain. These kinds of videos could be created and upload, and in many cases, their anonymity is just as easy to maintain. These kinds of videos could be created anywhere in the world— but the punishment would be different depending on where you go. There's no discernible answer as to which country's laws are "right," but the question is still asked— should free speech be "limitless"? Where do we draw the line?

When you look up these videos, you'll undoubtedly be upset— so I recommend cooling down with one of their many parodies. Search for "Ching Chong: Asians in the Library Song," or go for one more view of Black's "Friday." As Rebecca says, "Think about fun. You know what it is." She had better intentions during the filming of her video, I'm sure.
You also failed to mention all of the Irish drinks that there are—Guinness, Jameson... shift (snog is definitely fully British)

Kiss Drunk for the Irish name Patrick. So what the fuck is St. Patty’s day? Celebrating some whore right. Patty is an abbreviation for a girl’s name (i.e. Patricia). PaDDy is an abbreviation with emily in Japan. One important nuclear reactor has had power horrendous, but improving situation post-Earthquake and tsu-

Japanese Prime Minister Naoto Kan ever, Merrimack is in for the first time, Western Michigan is in for the first time since 1996... Hockey East has 3 teams: BC, Merrimack, and UNH. National Champion: Merrimack

We are the reason people can’t wait for Tuesday. Our generation stands at a crossroads. That’s America, that’s the world, that’s why we’re here. We are the ones who are reading about the future that will have already taken place. We are the ones who will make the next step and the next. We are the ones who will decide the world that is to come. We are the ones who will shape the future. We are the ones who will determine the course of history.

We are the best news team in the universe.
Phase 1: March 13 – 17

- A study on five phases of the spring semester, by Greg Jacobson.
- During the 5 days, we are experiencing a spring fever storm. The temperature is expected to rise significantly, with warm and sunny days making it feel like spring is finally here. However, there is still a chance of occasional snow showers, and the change in weather can cause confusion.

Phase 2: March 14 – 20

- A student describes the experiences of living in Burlington during the first week of spring. They mention the weather, the campus environment, and the social activities of the community.

Phase 3: March 19 – 21

- A review of the recent movie, The Social Network, by a film enthusiast. They discuss the plot, characters, and their personal opinions on the film.

Phase 4: April 1 – 15

- A discussion on the challenges of living in Burlington during the spring semester. This includes meeting new people, adapting to the city, and dealing with the weather.

Phase 5: April 3 – 19

- A reflection on the past year's events, including the pandemic, political events, and personal experiences.

---

Social Stress

by liscotella

Stressed out? This article is for you. As college students, we often find ourselves under a lot of pressure. Here are some tips to help you manage stress.

1. What to do when you're stressed?
   - Exercise: Regular physical activity can help reduce stress.
   - Sleep: Get enough sleep to help your body recover.
   - Eat well: A healthy diet can improve your mood and energy levels.

2. What happens when you're stressed?
   - Physical: Changes in appetite, headaches, muscle tension, etc.
   - Mental: Irritability, trouble concentrating, lack of motivation, etc.

3. How to deal with stress?
   - Talk to someone: A friend, family member, or counselor.
   - Write it out: Express your feelings through writing.
   - Practice relaxation techniques: Deep breathing, meditation, yoga.

---

Campus Connector

by liscotella

Recently, a new company called the Campus Connector has started offering rides to students in Burlington. Here's what you need to know.

- What is it?
  - A service that provides rides to students around campus.
- Why do you need it?
  - To get to and from campus events or errands.
- How does it work?
  - Download the app, book a ride, and get picked up.
- What are the benefits?
  - Affordability, convenience, safety.

---

Reflections

by liscotella

Summer is near, and many of us are thinking about what we want to do with our time. Here are some tips to help you make the most of your summer.

1. Set goals: Define what you want to achieve this summer. This could be anything from learning a new skill to traveling somewhere.
2. Make a plan: Break your goals down into smaller, manageable tasks. This will help you stay on track.
3. Stay motivated: Reward yourself for accomplishing your goals. This could be anything from a movie night to a new outfit.

---

Spring has sprung:

time to catch a man!

by liscotella

Spring is the air – which means love is in the air! With the warm weather finally arriving, it's time to start thinking about love. Here are some tips to help you find the right person.

1. Know what you want: Think about the kind of person you want to date. This could be anything from their personality to their physical features.
2. Be confident: Confidence is attractive. Show off your personality and interests to make a good impression.
3. Get out there: Go to events and activities where you might meet someone new. This could be anything from a concert to a charity event.

---

by liscotella

Stressed out? This article is for you. As college students, we often find ourselves under a lot of pressure. Here are some tips to help you manage stress.

1. What to do when you're stressed?
   - Exercise: Regular physical activity can help reduce stress.
   - Sleep: Get enough sleep to help your body recover.
   - Eat well: A healthy diet can improve your mood and energy levels.

2. What happens when you're stressed?
   - Physical: Changes in appetite, headaches, muscle tension, etc.
   - Mental: Irritability, trouble concentrating, lack of motivation, etc.

3. How to deal with stress?
   - Talk to someone: A friend, family member, or counselor.
   - Write it out: Express your feelings through writing.
   - Practice relaxation techniques: Deep breathing, meditation, yoga.

---

Campus Connector

by liscotella

Recently, a new company called the Campus Connector has started offering rides to students in Burlington. Here's what you need to know.

- What is it?
  - A service that provides rides to students around campus.
- Why do you need it?
  - To get to and from campus events or errands.
- How does it work?
  - Download the app, book a ride, and get picked up.
- What are the benefits?
  - Affordability, convenience, safety.

---

Reflections

by liscotella

Summer is near, and many of us are thinking about what we want to do with our time. Here are some tips to help you make the most of your summer.

1. Set goals: Define what you want to achieve this summer. This could be anything from learning a new skill to traveling somewhere.
2. Make a plan: Break your goals down into smaller, manageable tasks. This will help you stay on track.
3. Stay motivated: Reward yourself for accomplishing your goals. This could be anything from a movie night to a new outfit.

---

Spring has sprung:

time to catch a man!

by liscotella

Spring is the air – which means love is in the air! With the warm weather finally arriving, it's time to start thinking about love. Here are some tips to help you find the right person.

1. Know what you want: Think about the kind of person you want to date. This could be anything from their personality to their physical features.
2. Be confident: Confidence is attractive. Show off your personality and interests to make a good impression.
3. Get out there: Go to events and activities where you might meet someone new. This could be anything from a concert to a charity event.
The syrup to my waffles

The frosting to my cupcake

The rosemary to my spice cabinet

The nail to my hammer

The clippers to my toe nails

The life raft to my Titanic

The burt to my bees

I had turned down from the river’s edge where Savannah had lost her balance and stumbled and tumbled, and it hadn’t been through the swamp ass that would really redeem them, and secondly, they didn’t have a substitute for the powwow party they knew they needed...

I figured maybe I was delusional. That can’t be real. I couldn’t help but cry. I was completely devastated. I thought they were delusional. I couldn’t help but feel sorry for them. That’s why I was groceries. I was completely devastated. I thought they were delusional. I couldn’t help but feel sorry for them. That’s why I was...
Patrick Messmore '11
Music: Pink Floyd, Creedence Clearwater Revival, ABBA
Movies: Dorm Daze, Transamerica, Shawshank Redemption, Reefer Madness
Religious Views: Spiritual Relationship Status: Single

about faceplace 2.5
by paul gross and patrick leene illustrations by vanessa denino,
katie gagliardo, eliza carver, patrick leene, Lydia shepard.

Patrick Messmore
Goin out tonight…but keeping my UVM water bottle's advice in mind. 4 drink max! Think. Care. Act.

Alan Steinberg
We miss you back up in UHeights man…Community Circles aren’t the same without you!

Natalie Ricci
Why would I come ALL the way down to your house for free condoms when I could get them at the Davis Center??

Shannon Markowitz
An award winner, huh? Hawt <3

Diantha Moss
Dude, check who I’m in a relationship with…I don’t really need condoms...

Mr. Mike
Bro, we appreciate you coming out, but our bar is NOT a place to distribute free condoms as some kind of weird attempt to pick-up chicks. If you want to come back, you’re gonna have to leave the rubbers at home.

Patrick Messmore
Hey man, just cause I was Thinking enough to Care about how the Burlington community Acts in its free time, doesn’t mean I’m a creep. Just tryin to look out for everyone’s safety.

Diantha Moss
"Cupcakes and Condoms ‘08" (20 pictures)
"Cupcakes and Condoms ‘09" (17 pictures)
"Cupcakes and Condoms ‘10" (8 pictures)
"Relay for Lyfe!" (95 pictures)

Patrick Messmore’s groups
LBGTQ Allies!
R.A. for Life.
4 or less, drink responsibly!
Red Cross Certified Life Guards are cool!
Trojan Men

"Cupcakes and Condoms ‘09" (20 pictures)