Guideline 1

Consider your purpose and voice before beginning to write.

APA Format versus APA Style
First Person, and Active vs. Passive Voice
Price’s “3 C’s”
  - Clear
  - Concise
  - Concrete
Guideline 3
Create a topic outline that traces your argument.
Use a good APA-format template!

Guideline 6
Within each topic heading, look for obvious gaps or areas needing more research.
Seek out expert interpretations for models and guidance.

Guidelines 7 & 8
7: Plan to briefly describe relevant theories.
   If you can’t, return to sources, improve your notes.
8: Plan to discuss how individual studies relate to and advance theory.
Guideline 9

Plan to summarize periodically and again near the end of the review.

Guideline 12

Flesh out your outline with details from your analysis.

The Three Bears: Just right!
Assignment

Analyze another literature review.
Muck around with an APA template (after viewing the next video presentation).