1. The authors of Reading #7 contend that "racial categories" are artificial categories, rather than "natural kinds" based on biological factors. What evidence do the authors give for their position.
2 pts

2. In her article, Garcia-Coll contends that psychological research has largely ignored or inappropriately examined the effects of culture on developmental outcomes. Give 4 points that support her position. 2 pts

Extra Credit:

3. Do children treat race as a "natural kind" category? Explain.
   (Reading #7) 1 pt

4. In what ways does "culture" function as a resource for developing children? (Reading #8). 2 pts