

Perennial Internship Program – Summer 2025

Internship Position Description

Internship Title: VT ANR FPR Trail Experience Intern

Internship Site: Essex Junction District Office – Field Based (State Lands in NW VT including Camel’s Hump State Park, west side of Mt. Mansfield, Bolton Nordic & Backcountry, Niquette Bay State Park, Law Island State Park, and other locations in the District)

Description: This internship will provide the student with exposure to a variety of tasks involved with managing recreation on public land.

Focus Project: Data Quality Control

A key component of ensuring a high-quality visitor experience is having an understanding of how many folks may be in an area during a certain time frame. To this end, I have a number of TrafX trailhead counters set up. The intern will help collect data that will help supplement the counter data. For example, there is a trail counter set up on Sunset Ridge Trail that is set-up with the default ‘divide by 2’ method, which assumes folks are hiking up and down on the same trail. The counter divides by 2, so as not to overcount users. Many folks loop hike from Underhill State Park, going up a handful of trails and then coming down Sunset Ridge Trail. The intern will help quantify the difference between folks doing loops hikes and those doing out and back hikes. This kind of information is hugely valuable for clarifying existing data and better telling the story of recreation infrastructure use on state owned land. The intern would be expected to be able to be outside for up to 3 hours in one location to do this kind of work.

Other Experiences:

The intern will be able to work with the Trail Coordinator on various tasks such as trail maintenance – which entails using hand tools to clear water diversion structures (ex. Waterbars, ditches) as well as removing blowdowns with handsaws. They may also shadow the Trail Coordinator when they are conducting trail assessments to plan for future trail projects.

Rubenstein students currently in their sophomore and junior years are eligible to apply. Earning Independent Study or Internship credit through the Rubenstein Internship Program is required. ***

The intern will have the opportunity to work with Niquette Bay State Park staff when they visit Law Island State Park to do basic maintenance of camp sites, privies, and the around-the-island trail.

The intern will have the opportunity to shadow the Outdoor Recreation Specialist on various projects including partnership work.
