

University of Vermont

Grossman School of Business

HONORS COLLEGE THESIS EXTENSION

Honors College students in the Grossman School of Business who plan to enroll in thesis credits during the 2026-2027 academic year and are unable to complete the thesis proposal by the deadline of May 18, 2026, due to extenuating circumstances, may apply for an extension. The latest an extension will be granted is August 1, 2026 for the fall semester and December 1, 2026 for the spring semester.

Please submit an electronic copy to gsbcss@uvm.edu and angela.erdmann@uvm.edu. This request will be reviewed by the Undergraduate Studies Committee (UGSC).

Name of Thesis Candidate: _____

Intended Area of Research: _____

I. GSB Faculty Thesis Advisor: _____

- a. If you do not yet have a thesis advisor, have you spoken to any faculty members about advising your research? _____
- b. Please list faculty you plan to contact and attach a timetable for identification of the advisor:
  1. _____
  2. _____

II. Indicate the planned date by which the thesis proposal draft will be submitted to the thesis advisor: _____. (Faculty are frequently unavailable in the summer. The availability of a faculty advisor and his/her ability for support during the summer months should be obtained immediately).