

KATE KENNY

300 Austin Drive
Burlington, VT 05401

ktkenny@uvm.edu
802 656 3430

EDUCATION AND CERTIFICATION

University of Cambridge • England

Postgraduate Certification of Education (equivalent to a Masters), German and French (1999)

University Of Newcastle-Upon-Tyne • England

B.A. Hons, German with French (1995)

1st Class with a Distinction in Spoken German (I graduated in the top 5% in my year)

L'institut français, London

Diplôme d'études en langue française (2002)

Diplôme approfondi de langue française (2003)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of Vermont

Lecturer of German, GERM 001, 002, 051, 052 (2009-2018)

Senior Lecturer of German, GERM 1100, 1200, 2100, 2200 (2018-present day)

Mater Christi School, Vermont

Middle School Teacher of French (2021 – 2022)

Merchant Taylors' School • Northwood, England (1999-2008)

German and French Teacher, Year 7-12 (11 year olds – 18 year olds)

- Taught German to Advanced Level (A'level) Standard and French to General Certificate of Secondary Education (GCSE) Standard.
- Organised and accompanied trips to Boulogne, France and the Rhine Valley, Germany.
- Raised results in British National Curriculum Exams to record-setting level.

Deputy Head of German Department, (2003 –2008)

- Responsible for A'level students' coursework
- Acted as examiner for national GCSE and A'level oral examinations
- Prepared Oxbridge candidates for their interviews

Japan Exchange And Teaching (JET) Program • Takasaki, Japan

Assistant English Teacher, Sixth through Eighth Grade (1995 – 1997)

- Taught English as a foreign language in a Japanese middle school. I also taught German in evening classes.

Wilhelm-Raabe Gymnasium, Hannover, Germany

Foreign Language Assistant (1993-1994)

- Worked as an English Language Assistant in a German high school.

KATE KENNY

300 Austin Drive,
Burlington, VT 05401

ktkenny@uvm.edu
802 656 3430

PUBLICATIONS

Cycling World; December 1997

Cycle Tour Part One: Around Hokkaido

Cycling World; January 1998

Cycle Tour Part Two: Around Hokkaido

CILT (Centre for Information on Language Teaching and Research); no. 20, summer 1999

An account of how pupils describe ways in which they learn and/or tackle ordinary classwork and homework tasks.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE AND ACTIVITIES

UVM • Burlington

Member of the Language Outreach Committee (2018-present day)

- Each year, I either host German students from Burlington High School in one of my classes, or I take my students to observe a lesson at Burlington High School.
- Each spring semester, I reach out to German-speaking members of the wider Burlington community and have them serve as judges in the German end-of-year talent show, and as interviewees for projects about immigration carried out by the 1200 classes in the spring.

UVM • Burlington

Conversational and Cultural Exchange Programme Coordinator (2023-current day)

- I work alongside a teacher at the Wilhelm Raabe Schule in Hannover, Germany, to form conversational partnerships between students from both UVM and WRS

UVM • Burlington

German-language Talent Show Coordinator (2019 – present day)

- I organize and moderate the end-of-semester German Talent Show each spring semester.

UVM • Burlington

German-speaking group Coordinator (2021-present day)

- I organize and facilitate the running of a weekly German conversational group.

UVM • Burlington

German, Russian and Hebrew Halloween Party Coordinator (2022 – present day)

- Each fall semester, I help to organise the programme's Halloween Party

UVM • Burlington

German Film Club (2025 – present day)

- Each semester, I organise a 'Kaffee und Kuchen' evening and we watch a German film linked to the topics which we have been studying in class.

UVM • Burlington

Member of the Support Network for International Student-Athletes (2022-present day)

KATE KENNY

300 Austin Drive,
Burlington, VT 05401

ktkenny@uvm.edu
802 656 3430

- Each fall, I attend the International Students' Dinner at the Patrick Gym, where I make connections with German-speaking athletes. These students then attend my classes in the spring semester to be interviewed by my students for a project about health, fitness and daily routines.

UVM • Burlington

Member of the Fulbright Scholarship Review Committee (2024-present day)

- I help applications hone their essays and practice for the interviews.

UVM • Burlington

Member of the SWLC Book Club (2024-present day)

- Colleagues from the SWLC meet each semester to discuss a book.

UVM • Burlington

Member of the SWLC Study Abroad Photo Committee (2025-present day)

after viewing photos and reading descriptions, the committee met to choose winners in three categories: food, storytelling, and everyday life. This is followed by a SWLC photo unveiling at the Howe Library, a couple of weeks later.

Mater Christi School • Burlington

Mentor to Middle School French Teacher (2018-2019)

Extra-curricular language club coordinator and teacher (2018-2022)

French end-of-year oral examiner (2018 – 2022)

Champlain Elementary School • Burlington

Classroom volunteer (2011-2019)

Spelling Bee Coach (2017-2019)

Writing Club Coach (2015-2019)

Fieldtrip Volunteer (2011-2019)

Merchant Taylors' School • Northwood, England

Head of the Duke of Edinburgh's Award Scheme (2003 – 2008)

- Organised and accompanied 2-5 day hiking expeditions around the UK and France
- Managed a staff of ten.

Japan Exchange and Teaching (JET) Program • Takasaki, Japan

Regional Coordinator (1996-1997)

- Organised conferences, cultural events and social functions for JET participants.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

2018

- September 7th - Master Class with Prof. Christina Frei from the University of Pennsylvania
- September 7th - a workshop on World Readiness Standards for Foreign Language Teaching, facilitated by Prof. Christina Frei from the University of Pennsylvania.
- November 16th to 18th - ACTFL conference in New Orleans.

KATE KENNY

300 Austin Drive,
Burlington, VT 05401

ktkenny@uvm.edu
802 656 3430

-
- Teaching Grammar in the Flipped Classroom
 - Language and Gender Neutrality
 - New Alphabet for LGBTQIA
 - Teaching German Fairy Tales
 - German and the Environmental Humanities
 - Short Films – Windows to the World
 - Literacy through Performance
 - Let's Talk About Grammar

2019

- January 19th – German and Russian morning retreat, UVM
- January 23rd - Staging Languages - Creating an Active Classroom through Theater Method – Adriana Borra, Senior Lecturer, UVM
- January 31st – Curriculum meeting lead by Prof. Bridget Swanson, UVM, focusing on current principles and approaches to FL teaching.
- February 28th - Curriculum meeting lead by Prof. Bridget Swanson, UVM, focusing on current principles and approaches to FL teaching.
- March 29th – a workshop on Inductive Grammar, facilitated by Prof. Glenn Levine from the University of California at Irvine.
- April 25th – Roundtable: Teaching Language Online, organized by Jen Garrett-Ostermiller, Howe Library, UVM.
- April 25th - Curriculum meeting lead by Prof. Bridget Swanson, UVM, focusing on current principles and approaches to FL teaching.
- April 26th – a workshop on Structured Reflection for Collegiate Foreign Language Learning, facilitated by Prof. Cori Crane from Duke University.
- May 2nd - Curriculum meeting lead by Prof. Bridget Swanson, UVM, focusing on current principles and approaches to FL teaching.
- August 24th – German and Russian day retreat, UVM
- August 28th – December 4th – Weekly one-hour collaborative and instructional meetings with Prof. Bridget Swanson (author of ‘Augenblicke’) to plan and create materials for the new 001 German course.

2020

- January 15th – May 6th – Weekly one-hour collaborative and instructional meetings with Prof. Bridget Swanson (author of ‘Augenblicke’) to plan and create materials for the new 002 German course.
- March 10th: IALLT Online Community Learning Series
 - EXTRA: Pandemic Prepping in the Language Class: Instructional Contingency Planning for Emergency Situations.
- May 13th – May 22nd: UVM Center for Teaching and Learning: Pivotal Pedagogy:
 - Welcome & Keynote: Kevin Gannon, PhD - A Pedagogy of Hope in the Time of Covid-19
 - Student Voices: A Panel Discussion on Remote Learning
 - Sarah Jaquette Ray, PhD - What the Climate Crisis has Taught Me About Teaching During a Global Pandemic
 - (Re)Imagining Assessment - Tests, Papers, Projects, and More
 - Increase Learning While Reducing Cheating
 - Facilitating Discussions: Approaches and Tools for Multiple Environments

KATE KENNY

300 Austin Drive,
Burlington, VT 05401

ktkenny@uvm.edu
802 656 3430

-
- Facilitating Challenging Conversations in the Online Diversity Classroom
 - Microsoft Teams for Teaching
 - Pivotal Pedagogy Closing Session
 - June 17th: UVM division of diversity, equity and inclusion: Finding Answers Together: What is Systemic Racism?
 - June 24th: UVM division of diversity, equity and inclusion: Finding Answers Together: Cops, Courts and the Criminal Justice System.
 - July 1st: UVM division of diversity, equity and inclusion: Finding Answers Together: Turning the Conversation to Whiteness.
 - July 18th – CTL facilitated in-person tour of a GP classroom.
 - August 20th – August 28th, UVM Center for Teaching and Learning: Pivotal Pedagogy:
 - Team Time
 - Pedagogical approaches: Backward inclusive design
 - Pedagogical soundbites: Activating the Power of Peer Learning
 - Pedagogical approaches: Increase Learning while Reducing Cheating
 - Pedagogical approaches: Inclusive Teaching
 - August 31st-December 4th - Weekly one-hour collaborative and instructional meetings with Prof. Helga Schreckenberger to plan and create materials for the new 051 German course.
 - November 16th - talk by Dr. Catherine Greer, post-doc in Holocaust Studies and German: The Children's Opera Brundibár: A German Afterlife

2021

- February 8th - University Scholar Lecture Series. Joseph Acquisto, Professor of French and department Chair of Romance Languages and Cultures: Living Well with Pessimism, Then and Now
- February 16th - ACTFL and the American Association of Teachers of Japanese:(AATJ) "Engaging Our Learners: Lessons Learned While Teaching Japanese".
- April 7th: "Writing the History of Auschwitz". A Conversation with Professor Nikolaus Wachsmann, Birkbeck College, University of London, via Teams
- May 4th, May 11th, May 18th, My 25th: ACTFL: "Learning for Justice and the Social Justice Standards: Two-hour weekly seminars where we explored the Learning for Social Justice Standards and its four domains – Identity, Diversity, Justice, and Action, and we discussed how to infuse them in lessons for Novice and Intermediate levels. Each week focused on how the domains can fit into a lesson grounded in the World Readiness Standards."
- September 1st – December 8th - Weekly one-hour collaborative and instructional meetings every Tuesday with Prof. Bridget Swanson, Professor Helga Schreckenberger and Adriana Borra to plan and create materials for the 001 German course.
- September 2nd – December 9th - Weekly one-hour collaborative and instructional meetings every Wednesday with Prof. Bridget Swanson and Professor Helga Schreckenberger to plan and create materials for the 051 German course.
- Nov 19th-21st : ACTFL annual convention (online):
 - Co-curricular ideas for small programs
 - Nachhaltigkeit als Unterrichtsthema im zweiten Jahr Deutsch
 - New Pathways for promoting lively conversation!
 - Critical reflection in the German classroom.
 - Artifacts of a Fragile Democracy: Art and Politics of the Weimar Republic

KATE KENNY

300 Austin Drive,
Burlington, VT 05401

ktkenny@uvm.edu
802 656 3430

-
- Five high-yielding strategies to engage students in-person and virtual

2022

- Nov 18th-20th: ACTFL annual convention, Boston
- It's all About Clarity: Designing for Real-World interactions
- Getting more mileage out of authentic resources
- Democratizing Theater: FL Learners as Performers, Authors, and Directors
- Bridges to Success: Collaboration between high school and Higher Education
- From Documentaries to Protest Footage: Critical Media Literacy in L2 German
- Fostering Community and SPARKing a new Generation of Teachers
- Re-imagine Travel Abroad: Achieving Intercultural Competence at Home/Abroad
- Teachers' Conceptualisation of Social Justice in Language Education
- Motivational Factors that attract students to German Courses
- Building Gender-Inclusive World Language Classrooms Beyond the Binary

2023

- March 9th – Klett World Languages: Gender-inclusive and Trans-affirming Language Pedagogy
- March 27th – UVM Center for Teaching and Learning: Supporting Neurodiverse Students: “When professors are helpful, it really helps”.
- March 29th – Department of German and Russian: Sharon Dodua Otoo: ‘Adas Raum’
- March 31st – Liquid Margins: “Inclusivity and Social Annotation: Fostering Diverse Learning Environments”
- April 3rd – The UVM Miller Center for Holocaust Studies: “An Austrian Dreyfus”: Arthur Schnitzler’s “Professor Bernhardt (1912), Professor Schreckenberger, Department of German and Russian
- April 13th – The UVM School of World Languages and Cultures: “Enacting Inclusive L2 Writing, a design perspective”, Heather Willis Allen, Associate Professor, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- April 14th - The UVM School of World Languages and Cultures: “Enacting Inclusive L2 Writing, a design perspective”, small group consultation for writing in German, Heather Willis Allen, Associate Professor, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- April 15th - The UVM School of World Languages and Cultures: Workshop: “Enacting inclusive second-language writing pedagogy: a design orientation”, Heather Willis Allen, Associate Professor, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- April 27th: 33rd annual Harry. H Kahn Memorial Lecture: “Some had a farm in Africa: Holocaust refugees in colonial Kenya”, Natalie Eppelsheimer, Middlebury College
- June 13th - ‘Konferenz „Zukunft Stiftung – Philanthropie im Wandel“
Die Stiftung, Magazin fuer Stiftungswesen und Philanthropie, Altes Rathaus, Hannover, Germany.
- June 13th-16th: Konferenz: Gruene Stadt Hannover, Hannover, Germany
- June 13th: Ausstellung: Wanderbaumallee, Hannover, Germany
- June 15th: Grundwasser – lebenswichtige Ressource und faszinierender Lebensraum, Infostand und Aktionen, Maschseeufer, Hannover, Germany
- June 14th, 2023: Lesson observations (ESL, and German for non-native speakers)

KATE KENNY

300 Austin Drive,
Burlington, VT 05401

ktkenny@uvm.edu
802 656 3430

Internationale Schule Hannover, Germany

- June 15th, 2023: Lesson observations (English, from beginners to advanced learners)
Wilhelm Raabe Schule, Hannover, Germany
 - June 16th: Nachhaltige Architektur: tour of the Hamburg State Opera House with Ulrike Brooks, architect, Hamburg, Germany
 - June 21st: Lesson observation of intermediate German at the Hereford Sixth Form College, Hereford
 - August 25th: SWLC faculty workshops, John Dewey Lounge, Old Mill.
 - September 13th: Goethe Institut: German Culture and Politics in English on the Digital Wanderbus
- November 16-19 ACTFL Chicago
- Science, Technology and the Environment in the German Curriculum
 - Bridging the Gap: How Language Teachers Can Utilize AI to Enhance Learning
 - Incorporating Extensive Reading into the Foreign Language Curriculum
 - Happily Ever After: Fairy Tales for Community Engagement and Social Justice
 - Strengthening Your German Program with Goethe-Institut Resources
 - Von treulosen Tomaten und Glueckspilzen: The Culinary in German Proverbs
 - Teaching Culture Through Architecture and Design: Bauhaus und Jugendstil
 - Komm doch mal her! German Modal Particles and How to Teach Them Effectively

2024

- February 7th – Goethe Institute: Fortbildungsreihe: Antidiskriminierung: A conversation with Holocaust Survivor.
- April 11th – Europe Calling with Robert Habeck (Federal Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Action of Germany): ‘Wie gelingt die Transformation in Europa?’
- April 11th – Spark Workshop: ‘Why AI and German? It’s the future?’
- June 18th – Sprengel Museum, Hannover: ‘Aufkommende Unruhe’ – exhibition and discussion of work by Peter Tuma whose art tackles the social, political and geographical impact of climate change.
- June 19th – Sprengel Museum, Hannover ‘Der Maschsee waehrend des dritten Reichs’ – a discussion on the six (still-standing) sculptures, which were erected between 1936 and 1938 along the banks of the Masch Lake in Hannover.
- June 19th – Wilhelm Raabe Schule, Hannover, Germany: Lesson observations (English, from beginners to advanced learners)
- June 20th – tour of ‘Aufhof’, Hannover: The old ‘Kaufhof’ (a department store) had been standing empty in Hannover for a couple of years before it was repurposed as ‘Aufhof’ – a space where ‘Kultur, Innovation and Dialog’ takes place. The space now houses the department of city development, an architectural firm, art exhibitions, E-sports, project exhibitions, workshops, conferences, lectures and a café. Vivica Bree, who works for the City Development, gave me a tour of the building and I also attended the following workshops:
 - ‘Zeit fuer nachhaltige Stadmoebel; Teilen und schenken macht Freu(n)de!, ‘Time for sustainable city furniture’ – sharing and gifting creates friends and joy’ – an exhibition of how cardboard can be used to create sustainable shelter/furniture for the unwanted goods which many people leave outside their homes for others to take.
- Workshop: ‘Mit Datendetektiven auf Spurensuche – Root Cause Analyse durch KI’ – How AI algorithms can help to identify and solve the causes of problems. Lecture given by Prof.in Dr.in Pia Heins, Professorin Elektro und Informationstechnik, Hochschule Hannover.
- June 20th - ‘Zukunft braucht Vielfalt’ - ‘The future needs diversity’. Sommerempfang der Wirtschaftsfoerderung der Region Hannover, Hannover
- June 21st – a visit to the ‘Recyclinghaus’ Hannover – the first house in the world to be made entirely from recycled materials.

KATE KENNY

300 Austin Drive,
Burlington, VT 05401

ktkenny@uvm.edu
802 656 3430

-
- July 17th – ‘Kultur in ausrangierten U-Bahnen und Container’ - a tour of the Container City in Munich, where containers and old underground train cars have been repurposed and brightly painted to create a street full of cafés, bakeries, galleries and music venues.
 - September 27th – UVM Symposium on Artificial Intelligence and World Languages Instruction – research talk by Drs. Urlaub and Dessein, MIT
 - September 28th - UVM Symposium on Artificial Intelligence and World Languages Instruction – research talk, Dr. Duclos, Colgate University and round table discussion, moderated by Dr. Sawin, Middlebury College.
 - October 22nd - SWLC - Germany and Current Transatlantic Relations; A discussion with Dr. Sonja Kreibich, Consul General of Germany.
 - October 27th - Hotel Vermont - Book Launch and lecture by Kerstin Lange ‘Phantom Border: A Personal Reconnaissance of Contemporary Germany’
 - November 11th. UVM – One Day in Auschwitz – Lecture by Nikolaus Wachsmann, Birkbeck College, London

2025

- March 31st. UVM– Sculpted Others – Lecture by Dr. Margaret Strair, Bryn Mawr Colleg
- June 19th- June 29th Goethe Institute, Berlin: Fortbildung Geschichte & Erinnerungskultur in Berlin. Seminars and workshops were attended at:
 - Topographie des Terrors
 - Gedenkstaette Berliner Mauer
 - Dokumentationszentrum Flucht, Vertreibung, Versoehnung
 - Holocaust Mahnmal
 - Lernort Keibelstrasse
- August 18th, UVM: Developing Your AI Policy
- August 22 – SWLC retreat, Main Street Landing, Burlington
- September 20th – Workshop by Dr. Ashley Voeks – The How-To and Why-To of Career Readiness in Languages and Literatures
- September 26th – SWLC Alumni Panel
- November 17th – Faculty Research: Diana Poppa – Entangled Archives; Glenn Levine-West – Translanguaging, Coffee and Cake.

KATE KENNY

300 Austin Drive,
Burlington, VT 05401

ktkenny@uvm.edu
802 656 3430
