

UVM STUDY ABROAD PATHWAY

STUDY ABROAD 101 - 6 to 12 months prior to application deadline

- Begin the Study Abroad Planning process with Study Abroad 101 attendance. This session covers the basics of planning a study abroad experience. Hosted weekly during the semester, visit uvm.edu/oie/study_abroad_events for information.

RESEARCHING/CHOOSING A PROGRAM - 3-6 months prior to application deadline

- Research program options using the GoAbroad Program Search.
- Explore course options and costs of programs that interest you. Key Resource: Program Comparison Worksheet. Attend Drop-In Advising to get help comparing programs.
- Talk to your Academic Advisor. Key Resource: Study Abroad Academic Planning Form
- Make a Financial Plan. Research program costs and make a budget. Meet with UVM SFS to learn how your aid may be applied to your selected program.
- Line Up Key Things. Update your passport. Discuss your plans with your family/support system.

START YOUR GOABROAD APPLICATION (PRE-DECISION) - 2 to 4 months prior to application deadline

- Once you've selected your program, start your GoAbroad application. You only need ONE application. Plan ahead to complete all GoAbroad Pre-Decision Checklist Items by the deadline. Some steps require time to complete. Many programs have a dual application process. Both applications need to be complete by the UVM Deadline*

COMPLETE GOABROAD: POST-DECISION PROCESS - Complete by May 1/November 15

- This is the period after being conditionally accepted and prior to departure where you have to complete UVM-required steps to finalize your study abroad plans including: Obtaining final college/school approval, attending Study Abroad Pre-Departure Orientation, complete financial aid and scholarship transfer process, completing host program requirements and forms, applying for your visa, securing host location logistics.

GOING ABROAD

- Enjoy your study abroad experience and share it with UVM! Send us photos, do an instagram takeover.
- Request your transcript prior to departure.

RETURNING HOME

- Complete the study abroad transfer credit process.

Planning for your study abroad experience begins 6-12 months prior to UVM study abroad application deadlines!
