

456-3DD

Map of Hamden, Delaware County, showing new school site & vicinity, 1902.
Surveyed by Alva Seybolt, Oneonta. At Delaware County Historical Assn., 6/4/02

Legend

- A. new Town of Delhi Highway Dept
- B&C. Delaware Cnty Electric Co-op
- D. ?
- E. oil tanks. Sinclair in 1929, now
- F. ? Esso-Humble-Woodham
- G. Husqvarna
- H. cement blocks - Acabjel ??
- I. } Silo. Molmax Liquid Feed
- J. } old industrial bldg.
- K. } formerly Penfield
- L. freight station
- *M. possible site of depot: concrete foundation
- N. section house? foundation
- R. turntable reported here (does this site match old map?)
- O. Delhi Senior Community Apts.
- P. Agway
- Q. ?
- S. Log Yard
- FF. American Forestry Services Co-op
- T. Village Dept. of Public Works
- U. Pizza Hut
- V. Mc Donald's
- W. Amer Shopping plaza - now Price Chopper
- X. concrete retaining wall above RR grade, with railroad rail posts
- EE. Sherwood Rd. terraced at former grade x-ing
- Y. bank, Wilber National
- Z. houses. RR on terrace behind.
- AA. back yards disrupt the RR grade
- BB. Substation
- CC. Sign "Welcome to Delhi"
- DD. Sewer
- *M. could also be ice house????

The following entry is made on the field notes:
 "Robert S. Brown, S.U.N.Y."
 Why? Did someone suggest his name as a RR historian?

The dotted line is a faint suggestion of the Delaware RR diverging up the Little Delaware R. on aerial photos.

L. freight station
 *M. possible site of depot: concrete foundation
 N. section house? foundation
 R. turntable reported here (does this site match old map?)

X. concrete retaining wall above RR grade, with railroad rail posts
 EE. Sherwood Rd. terraced at former grade x-ing

*M. could also be ice house????