Document A: Staff Exit Interview

Exit Interview Date: ______________

The University Mission
Our mission is to create, evaluate, share, and apply knowledge and to prepare students to be accountable leaders who will bring to their work dedication to the global community, a grasp of complexity, effective problem-solving and communication skills, and an enduring commitment to learning and ethical conduct.

Our Common Ground
The University of Vermont is an educationally purposeful community seeking to prepare students to live in a diverse and changing world. We who work, live, study, teach, do research, conduct business, or participate in the University of Vermont are members of this community. As members, we believe in the transforming power of education and agree to help create and foster an environment where we can discover and reach our true potential. We aspire to be a community that values Respect, Integrity, Innovation, Openness, Justice, and Responsibility.

Exit Interview Purpose
The exit interview process is intended to provide employees voluntarily leaving the University with the opportunity to provide feedback on culture, job satisfaction, benefits & pay offerings. The purpose of the exit interview is to gain insight into where there is opportunity to promote employee job satisfaction. The University of Vermont encourages exiting employees to be as honest as possible. Information collected during exit interviews will allow the University of Vermont a unique perspective on organizational performance and employee satisfaction.

Privacy Statement
We value your input. The information provided will not affect future references. Information collected during exit interviews is private. This information will only be shared in aggregate and personally identifying information will be removed before it is shared. However, if unethical or criminal behavior, incidents of discrimination or harassment, regulatory non-compliance or other legal issues are divulged, the survey administrator is obligated to take action by notifying Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Office, Police Services, Audit Services, or other appropriate University office. The information provided in these circumstances may include personally identifiable information. You may also submit concerns either with self-identification or anonymously, to the Ethics and Compliance Reporting and Helpline.
