Danbury Hospital and the UVM College of Medicine present

GLOBAL HEALTH SERIES II
Tuesday, December 4 - 5:00 – 9:00 pm
Sullivan Classroom, Medical Education Center 200

Hosted by Magid Sadigh, MD, Director of the Global Health Center at Danbury Hospital/Western Connecticut Health Center

Featuring:
- William Fabricius, MD, Internal Medicine Chief Resident, Saint Mary’s Hospital, Waterbury, CT, presents “Reflections on a Clinical Elective in Russia”
- Allison Arwady, MD, Chief Resident Primary Care, Yale University, reads from her JAMA article “Collateral,” regarding a young mother at Mulago Hospital in Uganda
- John Curtis, photojournalist and editor of Yale Medicine, presents photo-essay “Reflections of a Day in Kasensero” about a tiny village by Lake Victoria in Uganda
  - Katrin Sara Sadigh, senior medical student, presents “The Circle of Silence”
- Majid Sadigh, MD, presents “The Impact of an Exchange Program on Medical Education in Kazan State Medical University”
- Mary Streeter, MS, UVM Clinical Instructor Radiology, and Tamar Goldberg, UVM medical student, present “Innovation in Uganda for Training Remote Ultrasound Personnel: A 3-Phase Educational Model”

RSVP to Audree Frey at Audree.Frey@uvm.edu
Refreshments will be served.

Danbury Hospital / Western Connecticut Health Network & the University of Vermont College of Medicine:
Partners in Medical Education