

Connecting to Dairy

May 2023

The UVM Extension 4-H Program invites sixth-grade teachers to mark your calendars now for one of two field trips at working dairy farms to explore Vermont dairy farming careers and more:

Wednesday, May 17 at Fairmount Farm in East Montpelier, Vt.

Wednesday, May 24 at the North Williston Cattle Company in Williston, Vt.

- ▶ From 9:30 a.m. to 2 pm. students will rotate through hands-on workshops with professionals in agronomy, finance, technology, animal health, nutrition, policy and state workforce development, and more.
- ▶ All participants should plan to bring a brown-bag lunch.
- ▶ Students will have an overview of dairy farming and related careers, and teachers will leave with a curriculum that allows for further classroom exploration of these topics.
- ▶ Teachers may register online at <https://go.uvm.edu/connectingtodairy2023> by April 20, 2023.
- ▶ For questions or to request a disability-related accommodation to participate in this program, contact Sarah Kleinman at sarah.kleinman@uvm.edu or 802-651-8343 x521 by Wednesday, April 20, 2023 so we may assist you.
