

4-H VOLUNTEER RECRUITMENT AND SCREENING PROCEDURE

While volunteerism is crucial to the success of 4-H, it is a privilege, not a right to be a 4-H volunteer. Because of the influence that volunteers have on youth, it is critical that volunteers be selected so that the integrity of the volunteer efforts can be maintained.

Effective April 15, 2003, University of Vermont Extension implemented a new 4-H volunteer selection policy and procedure that includes a background screening process with the Vermont Criminal Information Center (VCIC). All 4-H volunteers who will work directly with youth will be required to go through the 4-H Screening Process.

4-H Screening Process:

4-H Volunteer Leaders are considered representatives of University of Vermont Extension when carrying out 4-H work, and must adhere to the following procedure when applying to become a 4-H volunteer:

1. Complete the University of Vermont Extension Volunteer Application form.
2. Read and sign the Code of Conduct form.
3. Complete the Agency of Human Services Consent for Release of Registry Form and return to the UVM Extension 4-H Educator or staff member coordinating your volunteer application. In addition, please be advised that UVM Extension will also conduct a Vermont Criminal Information Check and the State Coordinator will review any convictions listed, using the volunteer criteria:
 - a. Conviction of a criminal offense will not automatically disqualify the applicant from eligibility for a volunteer position.
 - b. The severity of the crime and length of time since the last conviction will also be considered.
 - c. A history of no convictions doesn't necessarily guarantee applicant a volunteer position.
4. Your references will be sent a form to be completed and returned to the Extension Office. If you have resided in Vermont less than one year, at least one reference must be obtained from previous residence and you will be asked to complete an FBI background check which will require fingerprints. Please let your County 4-H Educator know so they can provide you with directions.
5. Meet with the County 4-H Educator to complete an interview.
6. Upon acceptance as a 4-H volunteer you will receive an official appointment letter, 4-H volunteer leader card and a copy of your Code of Conduct.

Please be advised that 4-H Volunteers are considered mandatory reporters by the State of Vermont and have a legal and ethical obligation to report any suspicions to your local 4-H Educator and to the Department of Child and Family Services.

As a 4-H volunteer, I understand that participation may involve certain risks of physical activity, including but not limited to interaction with 4-H project animals, and that UVM will provide me with due care, but that UVM cannot insure that the I will remain free of injury. I nonetheless wish to participate in the UVM 4-H Program and voluntarily assume full responsibility for any risks of loss, property damage or personal injury that may be sustained by the participant, or any loss or damage to property owned by the participant, as a result of participating in the UVM 4-H Program.

I, for myself, my heirs, assigns and next of kin, agree to: (i) covenant not to sue UVM and its trustees, employees or agents and indemnify and hold harmless UVM, and its trustees, employees and agents from any and all losses, penalties, damages, settlements, costs or other expenses or liabilities arising out of the participant’s participation in the UVM 4-H Program; and (ii) release, waive, and discharge UVM and its trustees, employees and agents, from any and all liability, claims, demands, actions, and causes of action whatsoever arising out of or related to any loss, damage or injury that may be sustained by the participant, or to any property or belongings of the participant, while participating in the UVM 4-H Program.

This release, however, is not intended to release UVM from causes of action arising out of the sole negligence of UVM, its trustees, employees or agents.

UVM reserves the right to dismiss me as a volunteer, if in their view, I pose a significant safety risk to myself or others, or do not adhere to program policies.

I have read this Release of Liability, fully understand its terms, understand that I have given up substantial rights by signing it and sign it freely and voluntarily without any inducement.

University of Vermont Extension, and U.S. Department of Agriculture, cooperating, offer education and employment to everyone without regard to race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, and marital or familial status.

The following guidelines are to assist volunteers leaders in understanding what conduct is expected while serving in the capacity of a 4-H Volunteer Leader.

CODE OF CONDUCT – University of Vermont 4-H Adult Volunteer Leader

Upon receiving a 4-H Volunteer Leader’s Card, signed by the designated 4-H Extension representative, all 4-H Volunteer Leaders shall:

1. Respect the individual rights, safety, and property of others;
2. Be an active participant in the local volunteer 4-H organization and participate in routine volunteer leader training opportunities and activities;
3. Maintain a courteous and respectful manner, exhibit good sportsmanship, demonstrate reasonable conflict management skills, and act with dignity and pride;
4. Remember that the purpose of 4-H is youth development, and act in a way supportive of the 4-H Youth Development Program and its policies and procedures;
5. Recognize and support the responsibilities of the 4-H program staff in setting program standards, priorities and direction through clear communication and direct feedback;
6. Observe all policies, procedures or practices relating to race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, and marital or familial status, and any other basis prohibited by law;
7. Make reasonable efforts to provide equal opportunities for youth, to participate in project activities, awards programs and other activities and events; and make reasonable efforts to provide access to 4-H related information;
8. Provide a safe environment, free from sexual harassment, violence, verbal or mental abuse, neglect or other harmful behavior;
9. Abstain from alcohol and/or illegal drugs (or be under the influence thereof) while involved in any 4-H event, meeting or activity;
10. Refrain from the use of tobacco products while involved in any 4-H event, meeting or activity;
11. When acting as a chaperone, never leave the delegation being supervised or the grounds of the 4-H event unless approval is received from the adult in charge of the event or delegation;
12. Forward all lease agreements or use permits with schools or other public or private facilities to the UVM Extension 4-H Office for review and approval;
13. Process any 4-H funds through the local 4-H club, 4-H project group or local 4-H foundation; and keep financial records and make them available for auditing upon request of UVM Extension;
14. When working with animal projects, treat animals in a humane manner and teach program participants appropriate animal care and management;
15. Acknowledge that it is a privilege to represent 4-H Youth Development Programs and act as a positive role model for youth, providing encouragement and support of each member’s self-esteem.

PENALTIES FOR INFRACTIONS

Infractions of the Code of Conduct should be reported by anyone observing them to 4-H Youth Development representatives and/or UVM Extension Administrators. Penalties may include any or all of the following:

1. Discussion with the 4-H leader on the expectations outlined in the code of conduct.
2. Referral to the appropriate law enforcement agency.
3. Termination as a 4-H volunteer leader.

By my signature, I acknowledge receipt of this document and acknowledge that I have read and agree to abide by the guidelines in this document. I understand that my appointment as a 4-H volunteer leader is contingent upon my agreeing to this document and failure to comply with these guidelines may result in termination as a volunteer.
