Did you know?
There are about 900 different breeds of sheep. Name four that are popular in the United States.

Leicester Longwool Navajo Churro Dorper

Icelandic Merino Dorset Rambouillet Katahdin

Southdown Suffolk Karakul Lincoln Hampshire

Try this:
Everyone take the same amount of raw wool and see how long you can make a continuous string of wool. Measure them after to see who has the longest and who has the shortest. Ask the person with the longest how they did it. Who has the strongest piece?
