The 4-H dairy project is organized, implemented and evaluated by the Vermont State 4-H Dairy Committee in conjunction with University of Vermont Extension. The state committee consists of volunteer 4-H dairy leaders and youth from across the state. Any leader or youth who is interested in being on the committee should contact their local 4-H Educator. It is the efforts of this state committee that make the University of Vermont 4-H Dairy project possible and successful.

STATE 4-H DAIRY CATTLE JUDGING

The Dairy Cattle Judging takes place in early summer and is open to all 4-H youth in the state ages 8-18 (Ages as of January 1 of the current 4-H year). The day consists of five to ten classes of dairy cattle that are judged and placed by the participants. Participants are ranked by their accuracy of placing and oral reasons scores Top ten in each division are announced. The team is decided by a series of judging opportunities and your total scores of your five best judging days during the course of the summer. They are separate events.

STATE 4-H DAIRY QUIZ BOWL

The State 4-H Dairy Quiz Bowl Contest is usually held the third Saturday in March and is offered to 4-H members ages eight to eighteen (as of January 1). The State 4-H Quiz Bowl Contest consists of a written test, and rounds of verbal questions. 4-H members have the opportunity to buzz in their answer. DAIRY CHALLENGE

The 4-H Dairy Challenge is held in November on the University of Vermont campus. It is a day that challenges the youth on their dairy knowledge. There are four sessions with about 15 to 20 minutes of learning then a short test on what was learned. Some of the session have included but are not limited to: feed identification, weights & measures, meat cuts, tool identification, judging, diseases, cheese tasting, parts of the stomach, parts of the cow and breeds. The youth enjoy learning a new aspect of the dairy industry or honing in on what they have learned in the years past. Every youth goes home with a ribbon and the tests that they took for review and further learning.

NATIONAL 4-H DAIRY QUIZ BOWL AND JUDGING CONTESTS

The 4-H dairy teams participate at the Eastern States 4-H Dairy Contests and compete with the other New England states in judging and quiz bowl. The judging team may participate in the National 4-H Dairy Judging Contest held in Madison, Wisconsin or contests in Louisville, KY or Harrisburg, PA. NATIONAL 4-H DAIRY CONFERENCE

Each year Vermont sends 4-H Dairy delegates and adult chaperones to the National 4-H Dairy Conference held in Madison, Wisconsin during the World Dairy Exposition. Dairy members fill out an application that is reviewed by the State 4-H Dairy Committee. Participants may visit ABS Global, Hoard’s Dairyman, Nasco International, Inc., and the World Dairy Exposition. Participants will also attend workshops on computers in the dairy industry, dairy processing/milk quality, animal welfare, marketing dairy products and other related workshops.

The goals of the National 4-H Dairy Conference are to help selected 4-H youth learn more about the dairy industry, learn more about careers in the dairy industry, develop additional competence in a special interest area of the dairy industry and practice leadership and group participation skills.

DAIRY HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

You and your veterinarian should fill out the Universal Health Form for 4-H Livestock or a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI). A licensed veterinarian certifying that the animal is clinically free of all infectious or contagious diseases and exposure from such diseases should sign this form. You will need to have this form with you at all 4-H dairy shows, and your approval, lease/loan, and registration papers

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

All cattle showing in a 4-H show will be checked by a veterinarian as they are unloaded from the truck/trailer. At this time health papers, approval forms and lease/loans forms will be checked. Each animal should have the temperature checked by the vet (sanitizing after each animals) and have a simple overall heath check done. If the animal has a high temperature and there is quarantine space available, the animal will be placed there. When the vet has time to re-check the temperature and reassess the animal, a decision will be made at that time to allow the animal to stay or have it sent home. Other questionable health issues will have a decision made as soon as possible.

Shipping Fever
All 4-H cattle must have a Shipping Fever vaccination between 14 days and 6 months prior to the event which includes IBR, BVD, P13 and BRSV. Such vaccinations shall be documented on a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (on our 4-H Health form for in-state activities) and shall include the date administered and the trade name of the vaccine.

Rabies:
All cattle over 3 months of age shall have a current rabies vaccination administered according to the manufacturer’s recommendations. Such vaccination shall be documented either on an individual rabies vaccination certificate or a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (our 4-H Health form for in-state activities) and shall include the name of the vaccine used, serial number, date administered and its duration. Cattle without certification will not be admitted to the show. Rabies vaccinations are valid for 1 year. Cattle vaccinated last year must be vaccinated again for this year’s show. The vaccine should be administered at least 30 days prior to the event and be current within the previous 12 months. The state veterinarian recognizes cattle must be over three months old to receive the vaccine. Vaccination less than 30 days should be accepted for younger animals not old enough to vaccinate in sufficient time prior to the event

Tuberculosis:
No blood test for Tuberculosis is required for the County or State Vermont 4-H Dairy shows. Eastern States has changed the requirements; no test for Tuberculosis is required (rev. 2000)

Brucellosis:

VERMONT 4-H DAIRY QUIZ BOWL RULES

The Dairy Bowl is a contest where 4-H members compete against each other. Competition points are awarded for correctly answering questions about the dairy industry and closely related areas. Competition in the 4-H Dairy Bowl encourages a 4-H member to develop a more complete knowledge of dairy animals and related subjects. This contest provides an educational dairy program for all 4-H members, including those who may not be dairy project members, and provides a way to develop alertness and self-confidence.

DAIRY BOWL PARTICIPANTS - ELIGIBILITY
Contestants must be regularly enrolled 4-H members. Contestants must reach their 8th birthday by January 1 of the current contest year, but not their 19th birthday. They will be divided into 4 divisions (ages as of January 1):
- Junior 8 - 9 years’ old
- Junior 10 - 11 years’ old
- Junior 12 - 13 years’ old
- Senior 14 years old and older

Contestants will only compete against other members in their Division. Contestants may attend a college beyond high school. However, club members who enroll in or audit a Dairy Science or Animal Science course prior to the fall term are not eligible for the contest. Members of previous Vermont State Dairy Quiz Bowl Teams that have gone to Eastern States and/or National Competition are not eligible to be contestants, but may work at the event to fulfill their senior requirement.

DAIRY BOWL RULES-CONDUCT:
1. Individuals will compete in a series of one-on-one elimination contests until the top ten individuals in each Division and the Vermont State 4-H Dairy Quiz Bowl Team is selected.

2. Competition among individuals will be in two phases.
   Phase A - Each contestant will take a 50 question written quiz for seniors. Each correct answer will be worth 1 point. Juniors will have a test of 25-question test. Each correct answer will be worth 1 point. No points will be lost for incorrect answers or blanks. Points earned by each individual will be recorded at the end of the phase and combined with scores from Phase B to determine their placing. To determine the top scorers in the senior division, the process will be the same.

   Phase B - A total of 20 questions will be asked. - Toss-up Round Individuals will be assigned in groups of 8 to this round of competition before the contest. The first group of eight individuals will compete while others in that Division wait outside of hearing range. The same 20 questions are used for all groups in a Division (In the past few years we have had two rounds of questions for each group).
a. The first individual to signal will answer the question within 5 seconds after being acknowledged by the judge or lose 1 point. No points will be lost for incorrect answers. However, 1 point will be lost if the individual does not say anything at all. There will be no True or False questions. Any member answering a question without having a light lit or being acknowledged will lose 1 point. If an incorrect answer is given, the other participants have the opportunity to signal to answer the question immediately without having it reread. No partial credit is available in Phase B.

(Tiebreakers – A round of 5 questions will break a tie between two individuals.)

- If none of the 8 individuals can offer an answer to the question within 10 seconds, the moderator will give the answer and the question will be dropped.

- When a signal is pushed before the question is completely read, the moderator will stop reading the question when the light goes on - that person must answer the question. If correct, the individual will receive 1 point. The judge may not ask the contestant to explain their answer. If the answer is incorrect, the question will then be completely reread and the other participants will have the opportunity to answer it.

3. Questions will cover feeds and feeding, milk quality, herd health, udder health, breeding and genetics, marketing, dairy foods, calf raising, and other areas. A majority of the questions come from the Hoard's Dairyman magazine and reference books. Any breed or dairy magazine and/or reference books with current issues are good study aids.

4. Answers and interpretations of questions will be the sole responsibility and final call of the judges. An individual will have the privilege to ask the judges' panel to verify an answer that he or she feels is correct. If the coach challenges the judges’ decision, the coach must call "time out" immediately (before the next question is read). A decision made by the judges after the answer is verified will be final.

5. Any questions or areas not covered by these rules will be decided by the 4-H Dairy Bowl Committee. All decisions are final.

Following Phase B, the scores for Phases A & B will be added and the top ten individual scorers for each age division will be confirmed. The top eight senior competitors will be selected for the final round.

THE VERMONT STATE 4-H DAIRY QUIZ BOWL TEAM:

1. After the conclusion of regular competition, the top 8 seniors (this number may be determined the day of competition) individuals will compete in a FINAL round of 50 questions, using Phase B rules. Their score from Phase A will be added to their final round score. The 4 individuals scoring the highest in this competition will then become the members of the Vermont State 4-H Dairy Quiz Bowl Team. This Team will travel to Eastern States Exposition and Louisville, Kentucky, where they will compete.

If a Team member is unable to fulfill his or her duties, the next highest scorer will be asked to serve on the Team in their place.

PDCA Showmanship Evaluation Card

It is important that participants in showmanship ensure that their animal is in proper body condition and growth based on the age of the animal. Horns are to be removed at an appropriate age to provide a safer environment for the leadsperson. Feet should be properly trimmed to promote ease of movement for the animal. These practices will show good husbandry skills of the participant as well as a positive image for the dairy industry.

Identification Requirements for moving cattle In-State/Out of State!

Act 30 requires all livestock being transported within the State to satisfy the requirements for official identification for interstate movement under the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Animal Disease Traceability rule, 9 C.F.R. part 86 prior to leaving the property of origin, regardless of the reason for movement or duration of absence from the property.

All animals must have one of the following:

National Uniform Ear-tagging System (NUES)

- NUES ear tags begin with an official state number followed by three letters and then four numbers. The official state number for Vermont is '13'.
- Metal NUES tags are provided at no cost to veterinarians, livestock dealers, and producers.
- In compliance with federal law, NUES tags must display the U.S. shield if applied to the animal after March, 2015.

Animal Identification Number (AIN) - '840 Tags'

- AIN ear tags begin with an official country code followed by an additional 12 digits; 15 digits in total. The official U.S. country code is ‘840’.
- In compliance with federal law, AIN tags must display the U.S. shield if applied to the animal after March, 2015.
- May be purchased from most ear tag distributors.
- 15-character tags beginning with the letters ‘USA’ or manufacturer-coded tags beginning with any number between 900 – 998 are only official if applied to the animal prior to March, 2015.

If you want your cattle to be considered for showing at Eastern States Exposition, they must have an RFID tag (Radio-frequency identification) or a visual 840 tag.

If your animal is already identified with a visual tag, please contact your breed association to receive the best recommendation for applying an RFID.
