One Bowl Endless Variation Cake

1 box (16.25 oz.) devil's food cake mix	½ cup water
1 box (3.9 oz.) instant chocolate pudding mix	½ cup vegetable oil
1 cup sour cream	4 large eggs
	1 cup mini chocolate chips

Preheat oven to 350°F. Grease Bundt pan. Dust with flour and tap out the excess; set pans aside. Place the cake mix, pudding mix, sour cream, water, oil, and, eggs in a large mixing bowl. Blend with an electric mixer on low speed for 1 minute. Stop and scrape down the sides of the bowl. On medium low speed, continue to blend for 2 to 3 minutes more. The batter will be very thick and should look well combined. Pour batter into prepared pan and gently tap on counter to smooth it out. Bake for 38 to 45 minutes. Allow to cool in the pans on a wire rack for 20 minutes. Top with your favorite frosting or glaze. Note: I call this endless variation as you can change the flavor the cake and pudding mix to suit. If you prefer more of a milk chocolate flavor, try chocolate cake with vanilla pudding. I have used spice cake with butterscotch pudding; lemon cake with lemon pudding, try your favorite flavors. Substitute the water with coffee using chocolate cake or orange juice with a fruit flavored cake.

1 stick butter, melted (1/2 cup)	Zest from one lemon
	Confectioners' sugar for dusting cake

Preheat oven to 325°F. Grease an 8x8-inch glass baking dish. Separate eggs and beat egg whites until stiff and set aside. Beat the egg yolks with the sugar until light. Add butter and vanilla and continue beating for another minute or two after which you can add the flour and mix it in until fully incorporated. Add lemon juice and lemon zest then slowly start adding the milk and beat until everything is well mixed together. Add the egg whites, a third at a time and gently fold them in using a spatula or a whisk, repeat until all egg whites are folded in, but there should still be white bits of egg whites floating in the batter. Pour batter into baking dish and bake for 50 to 70 minutes or until the top and bottom are lightly golden and the cake is firm to the touch. The baking time could vary greatly depending on the oven, so take a peek at around 40 minutes and see how it looks. Sprinkle some powdered sugar after cake has cooled.
