Read&Write Gold

RWG is a text-to-speech software that is available to all UVM students, and is used in conjunction with myACCES eBook services.

Download Instructions

3. Scroll down and select Windows and Read&Write (US English). Once download is complete, double click on file and follow installation instructions.

4. Open RWG & Sign In.

- 5. Select sign in with Microsoft.
- 6. Input NetID@uvm.edu and select Next.

	×
Back	Next
	Back

7. On UVM's webpage, login with UVM NetID and password. Press Accept.

A beginner's guide to Read&Write Gold

- 1. Launch RWG.
- 2. Select Settings > show more settings.

3. Select General to adjust your toolbar's interface.

	General
General
Check It	Button size	Medium
Dictionary	Button style	Clear
Highlights	Dutton style
Prediction	Show text on toolbar	-
Scanning
Screen Masking	Toolbar color
Screenshot Reader
Speech	Launch on Windows
Translator	startup
Vocabulary List	Reference Style	Harvard 🔹
Voice Note	herenee style
	Locked Browser Mode	Start

4. Select Speech to adjust the Voice settings.

Find a setting		• rw read≀
	Voice
General
Check lt	Voice	US Ava - Vocalizer
Dictionary	Voice speed	0 50 100
Highlights
Prediction	Use arrow keys to
Scanning	change speed
Screen Masking	Word pause	None 1 second
Screenshot Reader
Speech	Voice pitch	Low Normal High
Translator
Vocabulary List		Test Voice
Voice Note
	Pronunciation
About Read&Write	Original Word	Pronunciation

5. Select Screenshot Reader to adjust RWG's OCR settings (note: large scale OCR conversions can be processed by our office. Please send imagebased PDF's to eBook@uvm.edu).

6. To read text, open a word document or PDF on your computer's desktop. Highlight text and use the controls on your toolbar.

- 7. Using RWG online:
 - a. Select Settings and toggle on Read the web.

- b. Restart RWG and your browser.
- c. When prompted, add the RWG extension.

Questions? Contact eBook@uvm.edu