From filmmaker and educator Thomas Keith, creator of the Media Education Foundation film “Generation M: Misogyny in Media and Culture” a new film set to be released in the fall of 2011, “The Manual for Building Dysfunctional Men: And How to Make Repairs.” This pro male film examines the many ways that boys and men are saturated with normative messages of apathy, anger, violence, sexism, homophobia, and society’s tightly defined definitions of manhood that ultimately damage men, women, and the relationships they form. Join MOC at this screening and discussion as we explore how masculinity is constructed, especially for MOC. Dr. Keith will be on hand to speak with audience members about the film.
