

Dr. Ambaye Ogato Anata

Ethiopian anthropologist. Research and applied work in conflict, conflict resolution, and health and wellbeing in Ethiopian society.

- Ph.D., Social Anthropology, Martin Luther University Halle-Wittenburg, Halle, Germany.
- Lecturer, Department of Social Anthropology, Addis Ababa University, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.
- Postdoctoral Fellow, Max Planck Institute, Institute for Demographic Research and Institute for Social Anthropology, Department of Integration and Conflict, Halle, Germany.
- Commissioner, Ethiopian National Dialogue Commission, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

- Monday, April 3, 2023, 9:40-10:30 am: Lecture and Discussion:
"Dynamics of Conflicts and Peacebuilding in Ethiopia: Challenges and Prospects." Lafayette L300.
- Tuesday, April 4, 2023, 11:40 am -12:55 pm: Campus Talk:
"Popular Protest for Regional Demands and Referendum in Contemporary Ethiopia." Williams 511.
- Wednesday, April 5, 2023, 8:30-9:20 am: Lecture:
"Conflict, Peacebuilding, and Impacts on Public Health in Ethiopia, Part 1." Votey 105.
- Friday, April 7, 2023, 8:30-9:20 am: Lecture:
"Conflict, Peacebuilding, and Impacts on Public Health in Ethiopia, Part 2." Votey 105.

All UVM community members are welcome to attend.

Sponsors: Health and Society Program, Anthropology Department, and Global Health Concentration at University of Vermont.

The University of Vermont

Conflict, Conflict Resolution, and Health in Ethiopia