SHANDONG UNIVERSITY OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

Shandong University of Science and Technology (SDUST) was founded in 1951. It is ranked in the top 6% among universities in China. It is located in Qingdao West Coast New Area, which connects the Beijing-Tianjin-Hebei urban circle with the Yangtze River Delta region. The New Area is the main access of the Yellow River Basin to the sea, facing Korea and Japan across the sea, which forms a strategic location of radiating the inland, connecting northern and southern China and facing the Pacific Ocean. It has 19 academic colleges, 9 centers for post-doctoral studies, 43 doctoral programs, 127 master's programs, and 83 undergraduate programs with 35,000 undergraduate students and 5,900 graduate students. There are about 600 international students from over 50 countries.

STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM FOR UVM STUDENTS

The Study Abroad in China Program for UVM students at Shandong University of Science and Technology blends intensive Chinese language courses with abundant opportunities to interact with Chinese students and Chinese people in a relaxing and friendly environment to help students develop their Chinese language proficiency and intercultural communication skills. Students with GPA average above 2.5 may apply to study in the program for 2-7 months, starting in late May or early June every year. Each student participating in the Program will have a native Chinese-speaking student as his/her speaking partner. A study tour is organized at the beginning of the program for students to visit historical sites and places of interest and experience various aspects of Chinese culture in China.
