- Meeting Time: Tues and Thurs, 11:40 AM to 12:55 PM
- Classroom: Innovation Hall E430
- Instructor: James Zahardis, PhD
- Email: James.Zahardis@uvm.edu
- Office: Innovation E329
- Office Hours: Tues and Thurs 3:00 to 5:00 PM, Fri 12:00-2:00 PM

- Pre-requisites
  - CHEM 1450 or 1455 or 1460
  - MATH 1244 or 1248 or 1242 or MATH 022 or MATH 023
  - PHYS 1400 or 1500 or 1600

- Course Description: This course serves as an introduction to physical chemistry, providing an overview of select topics in quantum chemistry, spectroscopy, kinetic theory of gases, thermodynamics and chemical kinetics. You will learn about the fundamental laws that dictate the properties of atoms and molecules that you have been introduced to in prior courses. Broadly speaking, the learning objectives of this course are two-fold, namely, to give you the ability to use physical intuition to interpret the behavior and properties of chemical systems, and quantitatively describing these systems using mathematical methods. (I will put a specific list of topics covered and corresponding chapters in a separate document.)

- Course Modality: This is an in-person course. The lectures will not be recorded. If you miss class due to an excused absence, please contact me so we can discuss mitigation strategies.
Grading: The following grading scheme is approximate and may be modified by the instructor during the semester:

- 50% Homework: these will be 5 or 6 assignments that will have a total worth of approximately 250 total points. These will generally problems that I design that strongly correlate to lecture. There will also be ungraded recommended problems in the textbook to build your problem-solving skills.

- 30% Exams: 2 Midterms (in class): there will be two in-class exams that are approximately 75 points each (about 150 total). I realize that many physical chemistry problems take a long time to solve, especially when learning the material, so the in-class exams will have problems that require more straightforward mathematics to solve compared to some of the problems in the graded homework assignments. These exams will also have qualitative and conceptual questions to ensure you understand major themes that have been discussed.

- 20% Final Exam: a comprehensive take home exam worth approximately 100 points, which I will give approximately 3 days to complete toward the end of the semester.

Schedule:
- In-class Exam 1: Thurs, Feb 22nd
- In-class Exam 2: Thurs, April 11th
- Final “take-home” project: To be announced.
- The graded homework assignments due dates will be announced during the semester

Grading Criteria/Policies

- Grade components: I will grade exams and homework assignments based on your application of principles and methods of physical chemistry to solving problems, so showing all work is essential. Specific restrictions on assignments or exams will be provided at the time this material is distributed.

- Late policy: Graded assignments that are turned in late are subject to a loss of points, which will be detailed when the assignment is distributed.

- Grading scheme: I will apply the standard grading scale but reserve the right to rescale the grades at the end of the course.
■ General Attendance, Participation Policies, and Expectations: Attendance and participation in this course are expected and necessary for developing a good understanding of the material. In this class, we will work together to develop a learning community that is inclusive and respectful. As a learning community we will seek to encourage and appreciate expressions of different ideas, opinions, and beliefs in the spirit of Our Common Ground. Meaningful and constructive dialogue is encouraged in this class. This requires mutual respect, willingness to listen, and open-mindedness to opposing points of view. Respect for individual differences and alternative viewpoints will be maintained at all times in this class. Conduct that substantially or repeatedly disrupts the ability of faculty and instructors to teach and the ability of students to engage may result in my asking a student to temporarily leave the classroom. See Undergraduate Catalogue - Classroom Code of Conduct (p. 443-444).

■ Excused Absence Policies: If you intend on missing class to observe a religious holiday or to participate in inter-collegiate athletics, please submit the dates of your absence to me in writing by the end of the second week of classes. If you miss due to medical reason or because of an emergency, please inform me as soon as possible. In all the above cases, we will work together to develop a plan to make up work that you missed.

■ Course Evaluation: There will be an evaluation of the course at the end of the semester, which is anonymous and confidential. I appreciate all feedback and will use it to improve the course.
