UVM Symphony Orchestra
Annual Concerto Competition

Audition: Monday, February 8, 2021 by Video Recording
Concert: Saturday, April 10, 2021, UVM Recital Hall, Time TBD

Eligibility
Open to UVM students who are registered for private music lesson from the music faculty at the university, or current member of Department of Music large ensemble

Repertoire:
- The piece must be around 10 minutes or under. One movement of standard concerto is acceptable
- All applicants must receive approval of the piece prior to the audition. If the repertoire is unsuitable for UVM Symphony, the applicant still may play at the audition, but will be asked to choose another composition to perform with the symphony upon successful audition. The piece must be approved by Dr. Kono before the audition.

**********
- All applicants must submit a digital copy of score, either solo with piano reduction or orchestral score, at the time of audition.
- All applicants must perform with an accompanist
- All applicants must provide his/her own accompanist.
- The winner must be able to attend at least two rehearsals including a dress rehearsal on April 6.
- Winners of the past UVM Concerto Competition are not eligible to compete.
- Video Guideline
  - Must show both hands and the face of the soloist and general view of the pianist
  - Video must be uploaded to UVM Streaming
    - https://www.uvm.edu/ctl/technology-for-teaching/uvm-streaming-media/
- Application and recording are due February 8, 2021
- Audition Form:
  - https://forms.gle/78nRtr3TmkLAofDx6

Find us on Facebook:
http://www.facebook.com/UVMOrchestra

The University of Vermont, Department of Music and Dance
http://www.uvm.edu/music/
For more information, please contact Dr. Yutaka Kono via email: ykono@uvm.edu