

University of Vermont Publications 2016

December 2016

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

Each year we celebrate the publication achievements of our University faculty and staff, acknowledging and celebrating the excellent scholarship, exciting research, and inspiring creative work of our prolific community. This publication is a tangible expression of the vibrant academic and creative undertakings at the University of Vermont, made visible for all.

The support of academic rigor and creative accomplishment is one of our highest priorities. The University has earned a reputation for academic excellence through leading-edge scholarship, research, and creative activities. These works by UVM authors, published in 2016, explore topics from the classical to the contemporary, showcasing the impressive scholarship and creative work being undertaken across the spectrum of disciplines at the University.

As a research institution and land-grant university, we are proud of the many ways in which the pursuit of new knowledge undertaken here advances our society, from the local to the global. With these publications our UVM authors elevate the aspirations of peers and students, heighten the University's national recognition, and inspire others to explore in depth the subjects and inquiries that animate their academic quests.

New discoveries and fresh work nourish our community and invigorate our pursuits. These published works benefit society, enrich our teaching and learning, and underscore the high quality of education at the University of Vermont.

Congratulations to our UVM authors on your accomplishments. Thank you for all that you do for this University!

With every best wish,

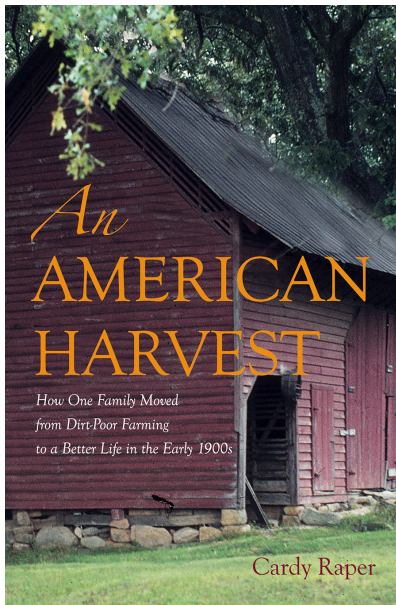

Sincerely,
