D. U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX RESIDENCY STATUS DETERMINATION (RESIDENT ALIEN or NONRESIDENT ALIEN)

Calendar Year - For U.S. federal income tax purposes, an individual is considered to be in the U.S for a "calendar year" if he or she is present during one or more days between the period of January 1 - December 31.

Exempt Individual - An individual who is exempt from taking the Substantial Presence Test for determining tax residency status. An Exempt Individual's days of physical presence in the U.S. do not count toward the Substantial Presence Test. Status as an 'Exempt Individual,' for the purposes of the Substantial Presence Test, does not equate to an exemption from paying federal income taxes.

STEP 1
Exempt Individual

I am a STUDENT on an F-1 or J-1 visa, AND I have been in the U.S. as a student for no more than 5 calendar years.
I am a PROFESSOR, SHORT-TERM SCHOLAR, RESEARCH SCHOLAR, or SPECIALIST on a J-1 visa AND I have been in the U.S. as a Professor, Short-Term Scholar, Research Scholar or Specialist for no more than two calendar years during the seven year period ending with the current calendar year.

If you marked either box, you are considered a NONRESIDENT ALIEN for federal income tax purposes this tax year. Skip Step 2. Complete Sections E (by checking the second box) and F.

If you did not mark either box, complete STEP 2.

STEP 2
Substantial Presence Test

The Substantial Presence Test involves a calculation of the number of days that you have been (or will be) physically present in the U.S. For purposes of this calculation, DO NOT include in your calculation any days that you are or were present in the U.S. as:

- A Student, or dependent of an F or J student-category visa, during the first 5 calendar years that you are/were present in the U.S.
- A J-1 (non-student category), or dependent of a J-1 (non-student category), during the first 2 calendar years of the past 6 calendar years.

Example: If you arrived in the U.S. for the first time on September 1, 2010, as an F-1 student and you have been in the U.S. since that date, do not include in your calculation any days that you were present in the U.S. for the first 5 calendar years (2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014). For this example, you would begin to count the number of days of physical presence in the U.S. from January 1, 2015, until the present.

Example: If you arrived in the U.S. for the first time on August 15, 2013, as a J-1 Research Scholar and you have been in the U.S. since that date, do not include in your calculation any days that you are or were present in the U.S. for the first two calendar years (2013 and 2014). For this example, you would begin to count the number of days present in the U.S. from January 1, 2015, until the present.

	YEAR	NUMBER OF DAYS IN U.S.			CALCULATION OF SUBSTANTIAL PRESENCE
Current Year	_____	_____	x	1	= _____
1st Preceding Year	_____	_____	x	1/3	= _____
2nd Preceding Year	_____	_____	x	1/6	= _____
TOTAL					_____

If TOTAL < 183, OR the number of Current Year days < 31, you do not meet the Substantial Presence Test and are a NONRESIDENT ALIEN for federal income tax purposes this tax year. Complete Sections E (by checking the second box) and F.

If TOTAL >= 183, AND the number of Current Year days >= 31, you do meet the Substantial Presence Test and are a RESIDENT ALIEN for federal income tax purposes this tax year. Complete Sections E (by checking the first box) and F.

E. SUMMARY OF RESIDENCY STATUS FOR FEDERAL INCOME TAX PURPOSES

I certify that I am a RESIDENT ALIEN for federal income tax purposes this tax year, since I meet the Substantial Presence Test in Section D, Step 2.

I certify that I am a NONRESIDENT ALIEN for federal income tax purposes this tax year since I am either an Exempt Individual described in Section D, Step 1, or I do not meet the Substantial Presence Test in Section D, Step 2. Nonresident Alien employees are restricted in the manner in which federal income taxes are withheld from their wage or salary. Nonresident Aliens must elect 'Single' marital status on IRS Form W-4, regardless of actual marital status. The number of personal withholding allowances on Line 5 is generally limited to "1," and individuals (except students from India) must identify themselves as "Nonresident Alien" or "NRA" on the dotted line of Line 6 to comply with IRS federal withholding guidelines. Nonresident Aliens may not claim 'Exempt' on line 7 of Form W-4. In the absence of a Form W-4 completed in accordance with restricted withholding requirements applicable to Nonresident Aliens, federal income taxes will be withheld at the default rate of 'single' marital status and zero personal withholding allowances. I will make an appointment with Tax Administration, 656-0679, 237 Waterman Building, to execute IRS Form 8233, Exemption from Withholding, and accompanying statement, if I am eligible for and wish to pursue an exemption from federal income tax withholding, pursuant to an income tax treaty between the U.S. and my country of residence.

F. CERTIFICATION

I declare under penalties of perjury that the information provided above is true and accurate. If I receive an extension of my visa status, or if my visa/immigration status changes, I will notify the Office of International Education, B-162 Living/Learning Center, (802)656-4296, and Tax Administration, 237 Waterman Building, Burlington, VT 05405, (802)656-6600.
