

October 7, 2022

Dear Catamount Families,

UVM Weekend is here! For those able to attend, we hope you have a wonderful time visiting your student, exploring campus, and taking in the gorgeous views of Vermont's peak foliage. Below is information we shared earlier in September with helpful links and a snapshot of events you won't want to miss.

Additionally, below you will find two separate notifications shared with students this past week regarding important health and safety information.

Here are just a few exciting events happening throughout the weekend:

- Student Affairs Reception (Saturday, 9:00–10:30 a.m., Davis Center)
 - Black Student Union's Soul Food Social
 - UVM A Cappella concert
 - Career Coaching 101
 - Pub Quiz—a Trivia Night tradition
 - Soccer matches and Swimming and Diving meets
 - Open houses and student markets galore!
-
-

- And, of course, everything else Vermont has to offer

See the full list of events

Cannabis legalization in Vermont— Policy reminders for students

Legalization in Vermont does not mean students can use cannabis recreationally or medicinally at the University of Vermont. We encourage healthy decision making and offer informational and support resources regarding cannabis use.

View CHWB's note to residential students \(pdf\) →

Upcoming on-campus flu and COVID-19 booster pop-ups

The Vermont Department of Health and UVM's Center for Health and Wellbeing have organized pop-up clinics for students to receive flu vaccinations and/or the most recent bivalent COVID-19 booster free of charge.

Read the full message \(pdf\) →

Don't miss an update! Add or adjust your contact information through UVM Foundation.
