Why UVM Chose EAB

College is complicated. The Student Success Collaborative (SSC) helps students and advisors navigate the many available resources that promote student success, during their UVM years and beyond.

We joined the EAB SSC because we want to:
- Enhance the student experience
- Create effective and efficient practices in advising

EAB’s Campus Platform – Benefits to Faculty/Advisors

Faculty/Advisors can:

- Quickly access student information designed to guide advising conversations
- Identify discrete problems & initiate early interventions
- Proactively refer students to support services
- Utilize timely, multi-model means of communication for reaching subsets of students
- Access data mining capabilities and predictive analytics to guide initiatives.
EAB’s Guide Application – Benefits to Students

Students can:

- View class schedule (including locations) and academic calendar from their phone
- Receive timely push notifications and alerts related to key deadlines
- Access and locate critical resources
- Explore career opportunities related to their interest and major.

Ongoing SSC Governance

- Two small groups

- June Orientation go-live for Guide application with Class of 2022
- Fall 2018 Campus application implementation with phase I users

a. Will invite Sarah and Jennifer back in 2018-2019 as regular guests to update the committee as the new tool is being launched.

b. Sarah will provide both Cathy and Regina a list of Faculty representatives to the committees working on the process and launch.

a. UVM portal. What content should be included? Veronika is working with the SAC to get a list of what they think should be included, she will share the list with the ERTC.

b. Expanded Course Descriptions, this is an ongoing topic. So far the solutions explored have not been a good fit for UVM. Veronika will continue working on this over the summer. In the fall she will work with faculty, students and other UVM communities on this topic.

c. Advising and Retention Tool continued discussions will occur during the 2018 / 2019 academic year.

d. Meet the CIO, invite the new CIO to an ERTC meeting early next fall.

e. ACCESS Students how the ERTC can help the process.

f. EMS making it more accessible.

g. Combined SAC / ERTC meeting, Potentially in December.

h. Research Data Management. Work with the RSAC on this topic.

4. ERTC Operating Procedures. The final version.
ERTC Responsibilities & Membership (Source: Faculty Senate By-Laws)

7.1.5.6 Educational and Research Technologies Committee.
This committee shall have the responsibility of matters related to the development and implementation of educational and research technologies at the University that guide acquisition of information literacy by students and faculty. It shall review and recommend policies and procedures relating to the planning, introduction, and use of campus-wide technologies, including computers, communications, electronic data handling, and instructional media. The committee shall assume responsibility for informing the administration of educational and research priorities and needs related to information literacy and see that these are considered in all planning. It shall maintain close liaison with the Curricular Affairs Committee, the Financial and Physical Planning Committee, the Student Affairs Committee, and the Research, Scholarship, and Graduate Education Committee. In addition to the membership stipulated in Section 7.1.2.1a and 7.1.2.3, each of these committees shall appoint one of their elected members to serve as a voting member on the Educational and Research Technologies Committee. The committee shall maintain close liaison with appropriate administrative offices in its areas of responsibility and with the Educational Policy and Institutional Resources Committee of the Board of Trustees.

7.1.2.1 Elected Members.

a. Number. Except as described below, standing committees and standing subcommittees shall be composed of at least one member from each of the major academic units (the Colleges of Arts and Sciences, Agriculture and Life Sciences, Education and Social Services, Engineering and Mathematics, and Medicine; the College of Nursing and Health Sciences, Business Administration, and Natural Resources; and the Officers of Extension, and of the Libraries. A unit with more than 200 full-time eligible faculty members may elect one additional member to each standing committee and standing subcommittee.

b. Eligibility. Any eligible faculty member may stand for election by his/her college or school to serve on a standing committee except as otherwise stated in these Bylaws.

c. Term. Members of the standing committees shall be elected for three years or as otherwise stated in these Bylaws, starting on July 1. Terms shall be staggered so that approximately one-third of the standing committee members shall be elected each year.

d. Election. The election of standing committee members shall be the responsibility of the individual college and school faculties. Elections shall be held no later than April of each year and shall be conducted by secret ballot distributed to all eligible faculty members of the college/school. An opportunity must be provided for all eligible faculty members to volunteer to run for election to Senate standing committees. The Faculty Senate shall supervise the elections of Senate Standing Committees; concerns regarding election irregularities must be communicated to the Senate President by May 1.

e. Vacancies. If a standing committee member vacates his/her seat the vacancy shall be filled by a special election within the unit from which s/he was elected. The term of a member under these circumstances shall commence immediately and shall normally be for the unexpired term of the regularly elected member. If a standing committee member is granted leave for one year or less a replacement shall be elected by a special election within the unit from which s/he was elected to take the absent standing committee member’s seat for the period of the leave.
f. Attendance. A standing committee member absent from three committee meetings in a calendar year in the absence of mitigating circumstances will be considered to have vacated his/her seat.
g. Members of the Senate. A standing committee member may also serve as an Elected Senator. Standing committee members are members of the Senate without vote if not also an Elected Senator.
