Section 2. Membership.

2.1 Eligible Faculty. University faculty members eligible for membership in the Faculty Senate (“eligible faculty”) are those at the rank of Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor, Instructor, Senior Lecturer, Lecturer, Research Associate, Clinical Educator, Clinical Practice Physician, or Faculty Scientist, with a full-time equivalent of at least 0.10 and who may also be Chairperson, Directors, or Associate Deans.

2.2 Faculty Senate Membership. The full membership of the Faculty Senate shall consist of the Elected Senators, a President and a Vice-President (see 3. below), and the elected members of the Senate Standing Committees (see 7. below). The voting membership of the Faculty Senate shall consist of the Elected Senators, the Chairs of Standing Committees whether or not they are also Elected Senators, and, in the case of a tie vote, the Senate President.

2.3 Elected Senators. Elected Senators are elected by and represent the faculty in their department, and act in the best interest of the Faculty Senate and the University of Vermont. Senators are responsible for communicating individual and departmental concerns to the Faculty Senate, actively engaging in Senate business, and reporting to their department faculty the actions pending and completed by the Faculty Senate. As representatives of their department, Senators will adhere to UVM’s community values outlined in Our Common Ground.

2.3.1 Apportionment and Term. Each department or comparable budgetary unit of the University shall elect one senator from its eligible faculty to the Faculty Senate for a three-year term beginning on July 1; units with more than 25 full-time eligible faculty members shall elect two senators. Units may merge their members; the resulting merged group of faculty should be reported promptly to the Senate President and will be considered as a single unit for the purposes of apportionment and eligibility of elected senators. One senator shall be elected by and from the ranks of retired faculty. Senators shall be eligible for re-election, except that a member who has completed two consecutive three-year terms shall be ineligible for re-election to serve during the year that immediately follows the period of consecutive service.

2.3.2 Elections. Elections for senators shall be held no later than March of each year by each department having a senator whose term is due to expire on June 30 and shall be conducted by secret ballot distributed to all eligible faculty members whose primary appointment is in the department. Ballots may be electronic or paper-based, at the discretion of the department or unit conducting the vote. At least one week shall be allowed for receipt of marked ballots. All eligible faculty members must be provided an opportunity to stand for election to the Faculty Senate as an Elected Senator. Terms shall be staggered so that approximately one-third of senators are elected each year. Election results must be communicated to the Faculty Senate office by April 1. The Faculty Senate shall supervise the elections of Senate representatives; concerns regarding election irregularities must be communicated to the Senate President by May 1.

2.3.3 Vacancies. If an Elected Senator must vacate the seat, the vacancy shall be filled by a special election within the unit from which the Senator was elected. The term of a member under these circumstances shall commence immediately and shall be for the duration of the absence or the unexpired term of the regularly elected member. If an Elected Senator is granted leave for one year or less a replacement shall be elected by a special election within the unit from which the Senator was elected to take the absent Senator’s seat for the period of the leave.

2.3.4 Attendance. Elected Senators are expected to regard attendance at all meetings as a fundamental obligation to their colleagues and to the University. When conflicting professional duties, imperative personal affairs, or illness make attendance at a given meeting impossible, Elected Senators may send an alternate, who shall have the same voting privileges as the Elected Senator. Alternates should present themselves to the Secretary of the Senate prior to assuming the seat of the Elected Senator. If neither the Elected Senator nor their chosen alternate is present, the Elected Senator will be indicated as absent from the meeting. A senator indicated as absent from two regular or special meetings of the Faculty Senate in an academic year will be considered to have vacated their seat.

Section 3. Officers of the Faculty Senate. The officers of the Faculty Senate shall consist of the President, President-Elect, and Vice-President, elected from the ranks of all eligible faculty members. The Immediate Past President remains an officer of the Faculty Senate for one year following the completion of the term of president.

3.1 President. In addition to other duties prescribed in this constitution, the President shall preside at meetings of the Faculty Senate; hire and supervise Senate office personnel, including an administrative assistant who shall serve as Secretary of the Senate; prepare annual budgets for the Senate; preside over University convocation and commencement and carry out other ceremonial duties as appropriate; and serve as the Faculty's spokesperson and consultant with the administration, the Staff Council, the student body, the Board of Trustees, and the extra-university community on matters within the jurisdiction of the Senate. The Senate President is a voting ex officio member of all committees, with the exception of the Nominating Committee in 3.5 below. The Senate President is a member of the Faculty Senate without vote, except that the Senate President may vote to break a tie. The Senate President may not also serve concurrently as an Elected Senator. In addition to the willingness and ability to carry out the responsibilities outlined above, the UVM Faculty Senate President will have the following qualifications:

- Experience as a UVM faculty member of at least three years (five years recommended)
- UVM faculty appointment of 0.5 FTE or higher
- Experience as a member of the UVM Faculty Senate, either in the role of senator, standing committee member, or Senate Executive Council.
- Previous experience in organizational leadership, at UVM or elsewhere, is recommended.

3.1.1 President-Elect. The President-Elect shall work closely with the President to become familiar with the responsibilities and workings of the office of President and shall assume any duties as the President may assign. In the event of a vacancy in the office of President-Elect, a special election shall be held to fill the vacancy. The President-Elect serves without vote unless also serving as an elected senator.

3.1.2 Immediate Past-President. The Immediate Past-President shall provide counsel and advice to the Board and the Executive Council in regard to past and ongoing activities and action of the Faculty Senate and shall serve for a period of one year. The Immediate Past-President is a member of the Faculty Senate without vote unless also serving as an elected senator.
3.2 Vice-President. The Vice President shall perform the duties of the President when the latter is prevented from doing so and is an ex officio member (nonvoting except when designated according to Section 7.122) of all committees with the exception of the Nominating Committee in 3.5 below. The Vice President is a member of the Faculty Senate without vote and may not also serve concurrently as an Elected Senator.

3.3 Succession. The most senior at-large member (as determined by length of service in their current term, and, in the case of a tie in length of service, by time in University service) of the Executive Council (Section 8.1) who is willing and able to serve shall perform the duties of the Vice President when the latter is prevented from doing so, and shall assume the office of Vice President when that position is vacant.

3.4 Term. The Senate President and Vice-President shall each serve a two-year term starting on July 1 with the President serving as Immediate Past President on the Executive Council (see below) for one year following the completion of the term. The term of office for the President-Elect shall be one year coinciding with the last year of the term of President. The President-Elect shall succeed automatically to the office of President at the end of their term as President-Elect.

3.5 Election.

3.5.1 Nomination.

a. Candidates for Senate President or Vice-President shall be nominated from the floor of the Faculty Senate, or by communication received at the Faculty Office prior to the stated deadline.

b. In addition, a Nominating Committee of seven members may be appointed by the Executive Council. In selecting a Nominating Committee, every effort shall be made to insure the widest possible search among eligible faculty for qualified Nominating Committee members. The current President and Vice-President of the Senate may not serve on a Nominating Committee.

3.5.2 Election. Ballots with the names of nominees will be distributed to all eligible faculty members in March. Electronic balloting will usually be utilized; paper-based ballots may be used if conditions warrant. At least 7 calendar days shall be allowed for receipt of marked ballots. The candidate receiving the majority of votes will be elected. In the event that no candidate receives a majority of votes in the election, a run-off election will be held between the top two candidates. In the case of an uncontested election, for which there is only one nominee, the Presiding Officer may waive the formal ballot and declare the nominee elected by acclamation.

3.5.3 Removal. Officers of the Senate can be removed from office for neglect of duties prescribed in the Constitution and Bylaws. Removal from office shall require these steps:

1. Written Charges of Neglect of Duties shall be made in the form of a Motion to Remove from Office as a warned agenda item at a meeting of the Faculty Senate.

2. A vote will be taken. If approved by a 2/3 vote of the voting members of the Faculty Senate (as defined in Section 2.2) present at the meeting, these charges shall be forwarded to the Parliamentarian who shall put the Charges of Neglect of Duties to a vote by referendum of the full faculty within 7 days.

3. The Officer shall be removed from office if a majority of the referendum responses favor it, provided at least 35 percent of the eligible faculty members (as defined in Section 2.1) cast valid ballots in the referendum.

3.5.4 Special Election for President. In the event that the President can no longer perform the duties of the office and the Vice-President is unable or unwilling to complete the President’s term of office, then a special election may be held. The election will follow the guidelines established in 3.5.1 and 3.5.2 with the exception that the election will not be required to take place in March.

3.6 Parliamentarian. The Senate President shall appoint a parliamentarian. The Parliamentarian is not required to be a member of the Faculty Senate, but any Senator appointed as a Parliamentarian shall not lose the right to participate. The Parliamentarian, by virtue of experience and/or expertise and/or willingness, shall attend all Senate meetings and shall agree to advise the Senate on questions of parliamentary procedure during normal Senate business. When appropriate, a professional parliamentarian may be retained.

Section 4. Meetings.

4.1 Access. Meetings of the Faculty Senate will usually be conducted in person. If circumstances, such as a severe weather event, outbreak of infectious disease, or civil unrest make this unsafe or impractical, meetings may be conducted via remote access with auditory and visual component potential. The decision of whether to meet in person or via remote access will be made by the Executive Council of the Faculty Senate.

Meetings of the Faculty Senate shall ordinarily be open to the public. Any University faculty member will be recognized to make a presentation or to propose a motion at an open meeting of the Faculty Senate, but only Elected Senators and the Senate President may vote on proposed motions. Persons other than University faculty may be recognized by the Senate President or by a majority vote of the Faculty Senate and accorded the privilege of making a presentation. The names and affiliation of such persons shall be made known to the faculty.

4.1.1 Closed Meetings. By a majority vote of the Senators present the Senate may declare the meeting closed to all except members of the Senate and those others specifically invited to be present.

4.2 Regular Meetings. The Faculty Senate shall meet at least four times each semester.

4.3 Special Meetings. Additional meetings may be called at any time by the Senate President. An additional meeting must be held on petition of ten percent of the voting members of the Faculty Senate (as defined in Section 2.2) or of five percent of the members of the eligible faculty (as defined in Section 2.1).
4.4 Agenda.

4.4.1 Formulation. The Executive Council (see 8. below) will prepare the agenda of each Senate meeting from proposals submitted by faculty members, Faculty Senate committees, representatives of student governing bodies, and administrative officials. Items presented in the form of a petition signed by ten percent of the full membership of the Faculty Senate (as defined in Section 2.2) or of five percent of the members of the eligible faculty (as defined in Section 2.1) must be included on the agenda.

4.4.2 Distribution. The agenda of each regular meeting must be made readily available to the full membership of the Senate (as defined in Section 2.2) and other eligible faculty members (as defined in Section 2.1) at least one week preceding the meeting.

4.5 Emergency Meetings. Emergency meetings of the Faculty Senate may be convened by the Senate President. The agenda of the meeting shall be prepared by the Senate President and must be made readily available to every eligible faculty member at least four working hours prior to the meeting.

4.6 Quorum. For action on warned motions (one week notice), a quorum is the majority of the total number of voting members of the Senate. For motions that have not been warned in advance, a quorum is three-quarters of the total number of voting members of the Senate. A motion is approved if a quorum is present and a majority of those voting approve the proposal.

4.7 Voting. Voting will usually be conducted in person, via electronic means, such as an audience response system (clickers). If this technology is unavailable, the President of the Faculty Senate may select an alternate means of voting. Options would include a show of hands, voice vote, paper ballot, electronic voting via an internet-based program or application, or any other reasonable means if warranted by circumstances. Voting may also be conducted via ballot distributed through UVM email. This means may be used for elections, referenda, and other matters of Faculty Senate business.

4.8 Approval of Resolutions. Resolutions will be considered to have been adopted by the Faculty Senate if a quorum is present and a majority of those voting approve the proposal. For purposes of calculating the majority of the votes, only yes/no votes are considered. Abstentions do not factor into calculation of majority support or lack thereof.

4.8.1 Referendums. Any issue may go to referendum upon request of ten percent of the eligible faculty. Every eligible faculty member will be allowed at least one week to respond to the referendum. The resolution will be considered to have been adopted if a majority of the referendum responses favor it, provided at least 25 percent of the eligible faculty members cast valid ballots in the referendum. For purposes of calculating the majority of the votes, only yes/no votes are considered. Abstentions do not factor into calculation of majority support or lack thereof.
4.9 Minutes. Minutes of Faculty Senate meetings shall be prepared and made publicly available in a timely fashion.

4.10 Recording of Votes. On the request of any member of the Senate, if supported by one-third of the Elected Senators present, a record of individual votes cast on any resolution shall be taken and made part of the meeting minutes.

4.11 Parliamentary Authority. The Faculty Senate shall be governed by the rules contained in Robert’s Rules of Order, Latest Edition, and such other special rules as the faculty may adopt. In case of any inconsistencies or differences, the Constitution and those special rules adopted by the Faculty Senate shall take precedence.

Section 5. Disposition of Faculty Senate Legislation.

5.1 Transmittal to President. The Senate President shall promptly transmit copies of Faculty Senate actions to the University President.

5.2 Action by the University President.

a. Approval. The University President may indicate approval of the legislation and their intention to implement it in either of two ways: (1) by noting their approval on the copy and returning it to the Senate President within one month of receipt, or (2) by not disapproving of the faculty action within the one-month period.

b. Disapproval. The University President may disapprove of the legislation by noting their disapproval on the copy and returning it to the Senate President within one month of receipt, together with reasons provided for their decision that may be presented to the Faculty Senate at its next meeting.

c. Delay. If a more extended period is required for consideration of the legislation, the University President will inform the Senate President of the reasons for the delay together with a precise date by which they intend to act on the resolution.

5.3 Appeal to the Board of Trustees. Appeal by the Senate of a presidential disapproval shall be made to the Board of Trustees, if two-thirds of the elected senators at a meeting or two-thirds of the eligible faculty members responding to a referendum indicate their desire to appeal.

Section 6. Amendment of the Constitution and Bylaws.

6.1 Proposal of Amendments. Amendments may be proposed in one of the following ways:

a. By resolution at a Faculty Senate meeting and approval by two-thirds of those present and voting, provided a quorum is present.

b. By petition of ten percent of the eligible members of the University faculty (as defined in Section 2.1).

c. By recommendation of the Executive Council.

6.2 Adoption of Amendments. Amendments generated by any of these methods shall be the subject of a referendum. A referendum ballot will be made available to every eligible faculty member, who will be allowed at least two weeks to respond. The amendment passes if at least two-thirds of the responses favor it.

Section 7. Committees.

7.1 Standing Committees and Standing Subcommittees.

7.1.1 Purpose. Standing committees and subcommittees are established to focus on the major continuing areas of faculty concern, including education, faculty welfare, student affairs, scholarly activity and research, finances, and physical facilities. A standing committee may divide its duties among subcommittees that are directly responsible to the parent standing committee. Standing committees and subcommittees are authorized to act for and in the name of the Senate as specified in these Bylaws. Such actions shall be reported promptly to the Executive Council and to the Senate and will stand unless the Senate, upon receiving such a report, takes jurisdiction of the matter for further consideration.

Elections shall be held no later than March of each year and shall be conducted by secret ballot distributed to all eligible faculty members of the college/school. An opportunity must be provided for all eligible faculty members to volunteer to run for election to Senate standing committees. The Faculty Senate shall supervise the elections of Senate standing committees; concerns regarding election irregularities must be communicated to e. Vacancies. If a standing committee member vacates their seat the vacancy shall be filled by a special election within the unit from which the member was elected. The term of a member under these circumstances shall commence immediately and shall normally be for the unexpired term of the regularly elected member. If a standing committee member is granted leave for one year or less a replacement shall be elected by a special election within the unit to take the absent standing committee member’s seat for the period of the leave.

f. Attendance. A standing committee member absent from two committee meetings in a calendar year in the absence of mitigating circumstances will be considered to have vacated their seat.

g. Members of the Senate. A standing committee member may also serve as an elected senator. Standing committee members are members of the Senate without vote if not also an elected senator.

7.1.2.2 Ex Officio Members. The Senate President is a voting ex officio member of every Faculty Senate committee and subcommittee, with the exception of the Nominating Committee in 3.5, and may designate a member of the Executive Council to act on their behalf. The Faculty Senate Vice-President is a nonvoting ex officio member of every Faculty Senate committee and subcommittee except when serving as the Senate President’s designee.

recommendations to the Faculty Senate for action.

It shall serve as liaison between the Senate and the administration on such matters as, but not limited to: the broad role of the University in advancing knowledge through research, scholarship, and the performing arts; external and internal support for encouraging these activities, including graduate and undergraduate research; intellectual property, and technology transfer; ethical issues and issues affecting the academic environment as these arise in research or scholarly work. It shall consult frequently with other University and collegiate committees that are charged to initiate, maintain, and monitor institutional support programs for research, scholarship, the creative arts, and graduate education, as well as maintain close liaison with appropriate administrative offices in its areas of responsibility.

In addition to the membership described in 7.121a above, this committee shall include a member from the College of Arts and Sciences representing the creative and performing arts.

The committee shall maintain close liaison with appropriate administrative offices in its areas of responsibility and with the Educational Policy and Institutional Resources Committee of the Board of Trustees.

7.2 Subcommittees. Any standing committee may establish subcommittees to perform specialized functions within the overall responsibilities of the committee. A subcommittee is directly responsible to the standing committee that created it, to which it shall report. The formation, abolition, and membership of such subcommittees shall be determined by the entire standing committee. The chair of each standing committee shall assign, with the approval of the full committee, members of the committee to the various subcommittees. The chair may appoint other eligible faculty members to serve on subcommittees. The chair of each subcommittee must be a member of the standing committee. However, at the request of the standing committee chair, the Faculty Senate Executive Committee may waive this requirement and approve a chair for a subcommittee who is not a member of the parent committee. In this case, the subcommittee chair shall serve as a non-voting ex officio member of the parent committee. The chair of the parent standing committee shall be a voting ex officio member of all subcommittees. The standing committee chair shall have primary responsibility for coordinating the work of all subcommittees. The chair shall appoint a secretary to keep minutes.

7.3 Ad Hoc Committees. Select committees may be created by the Senate, the Executive Council, or the Senate President for the purpose of studying specific problems and preparing proposals relating thereto. These committees will ordinarily be appointed by the Senate President, after consultation with the Executive Council, but may also be appointed by a majority vote of the Executive Council or of the Faculty Senate. They will terminate when their assignment is complete or within one year of the date of appointment, whichever is shortest. They may be reappointed. An ad hoc committee is directly responsible to the entity appointing it, to which it shall report. The chair shall appoint a secretary to keep minutes.

7.3.1 Ad Hoc Grievance Committee for non-represented faculty. The Grievance Committee shall consist of seven persons, all of whom shall be voting members. The Faculty Ombudsperson shall not be a member of the Committee, but may attend all meetings and hearings of the Committee unless excluded by Committee majority vote.
