Engagement Opportunities

Career Events
Throughout each semester, students have the opportunity to explore careers and network with alumni through a variety of panels, career fairs, networking breakfasts and much more. To stay up to date on the latest happenings, please read the Grossman Careers weekly newsletter. Students should customize their preferences at gsbcareers.uvm.edu to receive the most relevant information.

Case Competitions
Case competitions develop problem solving abilities, analytical abilities, time management capabilities, presentation abilities and confidence in presenting to a range of business audiences. These competitions prepare students for success in careers, job interviews, and better decision making. Examples of recent case competitions include: John Molson, Montreal; Concordia University; Rotterdam University; University of Washington, Tacoma; University of Arizona, Tucson; and Grossman’s Family Enterprise Case Competition.

Clubs & Organizations
Clubs and Organizations are not just fun and social – they are excellent networking and leadership opportunities. GSB offers several student organizations to help students learn, connect, and network outside of the classroom. A few examples include the Accounting Club, Family Business Club, and the Grossman Student Advisory Committee. Visit, gsbcareers.uvm.edu/student-organization-overview to learn more.

Global Experiences: Study Abroad
Business leaders tell us an international experience is critical for leadership roles in today’s dynamic global business environment. Studying abroad exposes you to different cultures, traditions and work environments and you will gain a new perspective on the ethics, norms and communication style for your chosen area of the world. UVM exchange programs with a business focus include, but are not limited to: University of Western Australia, Perth, Australia; ICN Business School, Nancy, France; Universidad Panamericana, Guadalajara, Mexico; Windesheim University, Zwolle, Netherlands; Wirtschaftsuniversität Wien, Vienna, Austria. To get started, visit: uvm.edu/business/study_abroad

Internships
Internships are a great way to explore careers, gain experience and build skills required for your future careers. Students are encouraged to participate in internships during their time at UVM. If you are interested in pursuing an internship, set up a meeting with an advisor in the Center for Student Success to learn how to get started. Visit go.uvm.edu/gsb4yp for a list of recent internships.
Research
In the Grossman School of Business, our experienced faculty members contribute to their disciplines and to the lives of our students. Undergraduate research helps place our students in extremely valuable opportunities. Students work closely with scholars who are experts in their interest area, gaining hands-on experience, receiving direct mentorship and building collegial relationships. To learn more about pursuing a research opportunity, visit uvm.edu/four in addition to connecting with a GSB faculty member or advisor.

Teaching Assistants/Tutors
Many business courses offer the opportunity for students to serve as teaching assistants or subject-area tutors. Students who are interested in being a teaching assistant should contact the faculty members for the respective courses. Students who are interested in tutoring opportunities should visit uvm.edu/academicsuccess/become_tutor for more information.

Academic Honors & Awards

Beta Gamma Sigma
Founded in 1913, Beta Gamma Sigma has grown to become the world's first international honor society. Currently, BGS has more than 500 collegiate chapters on six continents, and Society members reside in more than 160 countries around the globe. By accepting the invitation to join Beta Gamma Sigma, you will become part of the world's largest network of business school alumni. Each spring the top 10% of juniors and seniors are invited to become a part of an organization that is considered the “best of the best” in business.

Dean's List
Dean's list status is awarded to full-time undergraduate students with a cumulative grade-point average of not less than 3.00 who stood in the top 20 percent of each class of their college/school during the preceding semester. Dean’s lists are published at the beginning of each semester. Full-time enrollment shall be a minimum of twelve credits in courses in which grades of A, B, C, D, or F can be given.

Grossman Scholars
The designation of Grossman Scholar is awarded to our highest achieving first-year students. Recipients are selected during the admissions process and a separate application is not required. Grossman Scholars gather for a special Dean's Welcome event at the start of each school year and are offered targeted leadership opportunities and programming throughout their time in Grossman.

Honors College Scholars
The Honors College is home for UVM undergraduates who seek to dive deeper into their intellectual areas of passion. Any current first-year UVM student who anticipates having a GPA of 3.40 or higher at the end of two semesters of undergraduate study is encouraged to consider applying for sophomore admission to the Honors College. Students must have a GPA of at least 3.40 at the end of the spring semester of their first year in order to be eligible for sophomore admission, and that spring semester must be the student’s second full semester of full-time undergraduate study. Students in Grossman will complete a six-credit thesis in their senior year. For more information, please visit uvm.edu/honorscollege or schedule time to meet with an advisor.

Latin Honors
Within the graduating class of each college/school, students in the top one percent will receive summa cum laude; the following three percent will receive magna cum laude; the next six percent will receive cum laude. The total number of honors awarded will not exceed ten percent of the graduating class of each college/school. Students will receive an Honors Medallion and their diploma will also include this distinction. To be considered, a student must have taken at least sixty credits at UVM in which a letter grade of A, B, C, D, or F has been awarded.
