

RAMADAN @ UVM 2021

Best wishes to all who will be observing this holy month in the Islamic calendar (April 12th - May 12th). Here are a few resources that might be helpful in your spiritual practice. Please contact Laura with any questions or concerns. Ramadan Mubarak!

PRAYER TIMES & SPACES

The local masjid, Islamic Society of Vermont, has created this helpful prayer schedule, along with information about registering to attend Taraweeh prayers. Prayer spaces on campus include:

- Interfaith Center: (on Redstone Campus next to the blue water tower)
Open Mon - Fri from 8 am - 10 pm to all UVM members with their CatCard, the Prayer & Meditation Room is available with prayer rugs and shawls. An ablutions station for performing wudu is found in the restroom. Contact interfaith@uvm.edu if you need access at times outside building hours.
- The Mosaic Center for Students of Color: (Classroom, Living/Learning E - 166)
This room will be unlocked when MCSC staff are onsite, Mon - Fri from approximately 8:30 am - 4:30 pm. All students have access to the L/L E Lounge (across from the classroom) which has an ablution station. For questions, contact mcsc@uvm.edu

ACADEMIC & WORK SCHEDULES

If you are a student and have any questions related to final exams and/or assignments, you are encouraged to reach out to your professors as soon as possible. As noted in the Student Handbook, students have the right to practice the religion of their choice and seek reasonable accommodations.

UVM staff members are allowed to observe holidays of particular religious, cultural, or personal importance.

CAMPUS DINING

Since dining locations open after sunrise and some close before sunset, UVM Dining has made accommodations for those observing Ramadan, including the ability to request dates, milk, halal chicken, and iftar and suhur meals at the same time. See their info sheet for details.
