Each year about 60% of the junior class at Middlebury studies abroad in more than 40 countries at more than 90 different programs and universities. Middlebury has Schools Abroad at more than 40 universities in Argentina, Brazil, Cameroon, Chile, China, Egypt, France, Germany, Israel, Italy, Japan, Jordan, Mexico, Russia, Spain, and Uruguay. In addition, every year a significant number of Middlebury students study abroad on externally-sponsored (non-Middlebury) programs in countries all around the world, such as Australia, Botswana, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Ecuador, Ghana, Greece, India, Ireland, Kenya, Madagascar, Mongolia, Nepal, New Zealand, Nicaragua, Peru, South Africa, Tanzania, Thailand, Turkey, the United Kingdom, and more.

The intern will be collecting historical admit/matric data and developing a spreadsheet that will utilize historical information to create reliable projection data for each incoming class.

For more information on our programs and department, see: http://www.middlebury.edu/international/sa.