

Follow this study abroad timeline:

9-12 months before studying abroad

- Apply for a passport. Already have a passport? Check the expiration date and renew if necessary
- Attend a Study Abroad 101 session or read the Getting Started page: https://www.uvm.edu/oie/getting_started
- Read the How to Use GoAbroad page: <https://www.uvm.edu/oie/how-use-goabroad>
- Research study abroad programs using GoAbroad's search functions: <https://goabroad.uvm.edu/>
- Fully explore financial considerations for your study abroad experience
- Meet with your Academic Advisor and complete the Academic Planning form for your School/College: <https://www.uvm.edu/oie/forms>
- Choose a program in GoAbroad and click the Apply Now button to begin the UVM study abroad approval process
- Consider medications you take regularly and verify they are legal in desired host country
- Review visa information for your desired host country. Pay close attention to the visa application timeline and requirements.

5-8 months before studying abroad

- Complete the pre-decision phase of the UVM study abroad approval process in GoAbroad
- Apply to your program/host university directly on its website by the UVM study abroad application deadline (if applicable - ISEP, external, and direct programs only)

COMPLETE ALL OF THE ABOVE BY THE UVM APPLICATION DEADLINE

- Receive a placement/acceptance decision

After acceptance into a study abroad program

- Confirm your participation in your study abroad program and fulfill the program/university's enrollment requirements
- Make an appointment for health consultations and any required immunizations
- Apply for your visa to study in your host country (if applicable)
- Finalize your study abroad budget sheet (if applicable)
- Attend UVM Pre-departure Orientation
- Complete the GoAbroad post-acceptance phase
- Note: All forms must be completed by May 1/December 1 for the following term*
- Pack with intention, taking entry documents, emergency contact info, etc.

Application Deadlines:

Summer/Fall/Academic Year

UVM Semester: November 30

Exchange: January 10

External/Direct: February 15

Spring/Calendar Year

UVM Semester: April 30

Exchange: August 10

External/Direct: September 15

Learn more at uvm.edu/studyabroad

Questions

Contact us at studyabroad@uvm.edu

or 802-656-4296

