

Porky Pine

1 South Union Street Burlington, VT 05401
ppine@uvm.edu 918-888-1818

EDUCATION

University of Vermont, Rubenstein School of Environment and Natural Resources, Burlington,
VT Bachelor of Science degree in Wildlife Biology
Degree Expected: May 2013

RELATED COURSE WORK

Ornithology	Conservation Biology
Mammology (currently enrolled)	Principles of Wildlife Management
Wildlife Behavior	Introduction to Environmental Science

FIELD EXPERIENCE

Summer Intern, Nashua River Watershed Association, Nashua, NH Summer 2011
Identified wildlife corridors, operated GPS unit and digital camera, presented findings to Watershed Board, baited traps to capture Blanding's turtle and identified turtle nesting sites

Intern, Audubon Vermont, Huntington, VT Academic Year 2010-2011
Assisted staff with bird monitoring educational programs, contributed to ongoing research on Vermont Peregrine Falcon Recovery Project, updated marketing materials and website with recent photos

GENERAL EMPLOYMENT

Café Barista, Barnes and Noble Café, Burlington, VT, January 2010 - Present
Prepared drinks, baked pastries, operated cash register, brewed coffee

Mail Room Assistant, University of Vermont, Academic Year 2009 - Present
Operated cash register, sorted mail, sold stamps and postage, assisted customers

Retail Clerk, CVS Pharmacy, Concord, NH, Seasonal, 2008-2010
Assisted customers, cashier, stocked and faced shelves

ACTIVITIES

Member, Wildlife Society, University of Vermont, 2009-present

Member, Living and Learning Photo Co-op, University of Vermont, 2009-present

Participant, Animalia Program, University of Vermont, 2010-present

Member, Football Club, University of Vermont, 2009-2010

SKILLS

Comfortable with conversational French
Proficient in PhotoShop, Adobe Illustrator, InDesign, Dreamweaver