MINORS & CERTIFICATES
RUBENSTEIN SCHOOL

FORESTRY
16 credits
Gain knowledge, experience, and critical thinking skills to help solve the complex problems facing forest ecosystems, sustainable forest management, and conservation.

GEOSPATIAL TECHNOLOGIES
15 credits
Build skills in spatial analysis and geographically-referenced data analysis. Learn to utilize Geographic Information Systems (GIS), Remote Sensing (RS), and Global Positioning Systems (GPS) technologies to assess environmental issues.

PARKS, RECREATION & TOURISM
15 credits
Become a leader in innovative sustainable practices in recreation and tourism. Learn about designing, planning, and managing recreation, travel, and leisure systems for individual well-being, environmental quality, and societal benefit.

SPORTS MANAGEMENT
18 credits
Gain knowledge in sustainable outdoor recreation planning and management, coaching philosophies, marketing and communications, and strategic entrepreneurship.

WILDLIFE BIOLOGY
15 credits
Focus on the biology, ecology, management, and conservation of animal populations that range from common to endangered species. Learn about wildlife behavior and management strategies.

PLACE-BASED EDUCATION CERTIFICATE
College of Education & Social Services and the Rubenstein School
12 credits
Learn to design and implement curricula and interpretive materials based on the socio-political, cultural, ecological, historical, geographical, and pedagogical dimensions of specific places.

See detailed requirements for each minor at uvm.edu/rsenr/undergraduate_minors_rubenstein_school