You cannot withdraw cash from your CATcard accounts. There is no fee to establish or use the accounts.

1. This agreement is executed between the individual named on the CATcard (the participant) and The University of Vermont and State Agricultural College (UVM). This agreement references CATcard accounts (CAT$cratch, meal and Dining), which are an option available to UVM students, faculty, staff and certain UVM affiliates. This agreement is administered for The University of Vermont and State Agricultural College by the CATcard Service Center.

2. The term of this agreement will be determined by the participant's University affiliation or status. The term begins when the first CATcard has been issued by the CATcard Service Center until the participant graduates, withdraws or otherwise severs their relationship with the University.

3. A CAT$cratch Account will not be activated until payment (cash, check, or major credit card) is received, along with a signed application form, by the CATcard Service Center. Additional deposits may be made at any time by completing the necessary forms and making payment to the CATcard Service Center. Other methods for additional deposits are cash deposits through the VPRS (cash to card machines) machines located in the Bailey Howe and Dana Medical Libraries or through the website at - <https://www.uvm.edu/catcard>.

6. The Mobile Credential and CATcard accounts are non-transferable. The cardholder may be charged a fee and their CATcard may be confiscated by authorized University or Dining Services staff if the CATcard has been loaned to another individual.
