Dear UVM Community,

The Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award annually recognizes a faculty member at UVM who has achieved excellence in undergraduate academic advising. This award is a collaboration of the Office of the Provost, the Student Affairs Committee of the Faculty Senate, and the Student Government Association.

Nominations are submitted using this online form and are due by February 25, 2022.

The Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs will appoint a review committee to make final recommendations to the Provost for the award. See this Office of the Provost webpage for more information.

The nominal frequency of the award is yearly, but only when a truly outstanding recipient has been identified. Along with the award, the recipient will receive a taxable cash award.

Criteria for the advisor:

• Helps students to understand academic requirements, policies and practices
  Helps students clarify their goals and direction
• Helps students make informed decisions
• Helps students plan for life after graduation
• Makes students aware of opportunities for academic and personal growth and development
• Helps students create and make use of formal and informal networks throughout the University
• Helps students realize their maximum educational potential
• Connects students with on-campus resources and support services as appropriate
• Displays responsiveness, availability, concern, respect and depth of knowledge
• Strives for continuous improvement as an advisor

Thank you,

Jim Vigoreaux
Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs
