

Faculty Development Day

October 10, 2016

* REVISED AGENDA ****

8:00 – 9:00 AM	Breakfast (Invitation Only)	Waterman Manor
9:25 – 10:30 AM	Keynote Speaker Maureen Reed , Associate Professor and Director of Learning & Teaching Office, Ryerson University, Toronto, Canada “The Value of Teaching Resilience and Resourcefulness in the Context of an Academic Course”	427 Waterman
10:30 – 10:45 AM	Q&A	427 Waterman
10:45 – 11:00 AM	Break
11:00 – 11:45 PM	Breakout Group 1	457 Waterman
	Breakout Group 2	458 Waterman
11:45 – 12:30 PM	Lunch – continue breakout discussions over lunch (Boxed Lunch for those who pre-registered)	Pick-up in 427A Waterman
12:30 – 12:45 PM	Break
12:45 – 1:30 PM	Breakout Group Summary Presentation and Discussion	427 Waterman
1:30 – 1:45 PM	Break
1:45 – 3:15 PM	Workshop with Keynote speaker Maureen Reed (limited to 60 attendees) “Sensitive issues, Diverse Students and Classroom management: Knowing what to do when a problem arises”	427 Waterman

11:00 AM to 12:30 PM

Breakout Groups

Group 1 Helping Students Develop Resilience 457 Waterman

Helping first-generation students develop resilience

Helping students from underrepresented ethnic/racial populations develop resilience

Helping LGBTQA students develop resilience

Group 2 Helping Students Develop Resilience 458 Waterman

Helping veterans, community college transfers and new Americans develop resilience

Helping students with physical and mental health challenges develop resilience

Helping international students develop resilience

