Learn the art and science of equine reproduction through two days of lectures and hands-on demonstrations. From the ethics of breeding, mare and stallion management, breeding techniques & training methods, to foaling and neonatal care, this workshop is a thorough education and valuable experience. All levels of experience welcome.

UVM Morgan Horse Farm's 31st Annual Equine Reproduction Workshop

April 5th and 6th, 2019

Lectures and Workshop by:

The W. H. Miner Institute
Balanced Rhythms, Inc.
Meadowbrook Equine, LLC
UVM Animal Science Department
UVM Morgan Horse Farm

(802) 388-2011 uvm.morgans@uvm.edu

for further information and registration

The registration fee of $260 includes- Workshop, materials and meals. Door prizes are awarded throughout the workshop. Spaces are limited to 25 participants.