Campus Security Authorities (CSAs) and Responsible Employees under Federal Law – Designation of and Reporting By

Overview

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act) was enacted in the belief that crime awareness can prevent campus victimization. The Clery Act requires colleges and universities receiving federal funding to prepare, publish, and distribute, by October 1 of each year, campus security policies and crime statistics.

The University encourages all members of the campus community to contact UVM Police Services when they have been the victim of or have witnessed criminal actions. However, under the Clery Act, certain individuals designated as Campus Security Authorities (CSAs) are required to promptly report Clery qualifying crimes that occur within the University’s Clery Geography to UVM Police Services for inclusion in the University’s Annual Security Report. Pursuant to federal non-discrimination laws, CSAs are also required by federal law and University policy to promptly notify the Office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity (AAEO) of all reported incidents of discrimination and harassment, including incidents of sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, gender-based stalking, and sexual exploitation (collectively “sexual misconduct”), involving members of the University community, regardless of geographic location. In this latter capacity, CSAs are referred to under federal law as “Responsible Employees”. Collectively, CSAs and Responsible Employees may be referred to as “UVM Reporters”.

Procedures

Identification and Training of UVM Reporters
It is the responsibility of the University’s Clery Coordinator, in cooperation with the Vice Provost for Student Affairs and the University’s Title IX Coordinator, to annually identify who, as a result of their job duties at the University, constitutes a UVM Reporter, as defined below. Based on the list compiled by the Clery Coordinator, an annual notice will then be distributed to all UVM Reporters informing them of their responsibilities under federal law and University policy using individuals’ official uvm.edu e-mail addresses. Should a UVM Reporter not possess an official UVM email address, the annual notice will be distributed to them via the email address they have provided the University for official communications.

Additionally, the University strongly encourages all UVM Reporters to complete a training program to familiarize themselves with their legal obligations under federal law and applicable University policies on an annual basis. Instructions for appropriate training will be detailed in the annual notice, with periodic announcements and updates communicated by the Clery Coordinator.

Crime Reporting
All UVM Reporters are required to report certain (alleged) crimes, including hate crimes and instances of sexual misconduct, of which they become aware to help inform whether a timely warning or emergency notification to the campus community is warranted; to allow Police Services to optimize the safety of our campus community; to ensure proper statistical inclusion of reported crimes in the University’s Annual Security Report, in compliance with federal law; to facilitate and ensure appropriate support and institutional response in cases of discrimination and harassment, including all forms of sexual misconduct.

Call 9-1-1 immediately if a crime or other emergency is in progress, or if at any time there is an imminent or continuing threat of harm to persons or property.

In all other cases, upon the receipt of information that a crime or incident of discrimination or harassment (including sexual misconduct) has occurred, the UVM Reporter MUST:

1. Promptly fill out a CSA form at www.uvm.edu/police/csa, regardless of whether the individual who disclosed the incident to you chooses to file a police report, as outlined above.

   The name of the alleged victim(s) should not be included on the CSA Form unless:
- Disclosure is required by law (e.g. abuse or neglect of minors\(^1\) or vulnerable adults\(^2\));
- The incident presents an “imminent or continuing threat of harm”\(^3\); or
- The UVM Reporter is given permission to do so.

UVM Reporters are not responsible for determining authoritatively whether a crime took place. A report should be made based on the information currently available to them, including location, name(s) of alleged perpetrators or witnesses, and an incident description.

2. Promptly contact AAEO to facilitate appropriate support and institutional response, if the (alleged) incident involves discrimination or harassment, as follows:
   - Sexual Harassment and Misconduct: TitleIX@uvm.edu or Title9@uvm.edu
   - All Other Forms of Discrimination and Harassment: Bias, Discrimination & Harassment Incident Reporting Form (https://publicdocs.maxient.com/reportingform.php?UnivofVermontAAEO&layout_id=5)

3. Make the individual with whom they are in contact aware of their option to report the incident to local law enforcement (UVM Police Services: 284 East Avenue; 656-3473) and that UVM makes confidential and non-confidential resources available to the campus community that may be helpful to individuals who have experienced or witnessed an alleged crime, or incident of discrimination or

\(^1\) Vermont law requires that certain professionals report to the Vermont Department for Children and Families (DCF) any incident arising as to which there is reasonable cause to believe a minor has been sexually abused or neglected. In addition, to protect optimally the safety of minors who are participating in University programs and activities, the University requires any employee who has reasonable cause to believe that a minor participating in such program or activity has been abused or neglected to report the concern promptly to DCF and UVM Police Services. You need not have proof that abuse or neglect has occurred. Any uncertainty in deciding whether to report suspected abuse or neglect should be resolved in favor of making a good faith report. Please see the Minors; Reporting Abuse or Neglect of and Crime University Operating Procedure at https://www.uvm.edu/sites/default/files/UVM-Policies/policies/abuse_minors.pdf.

\(^2\) Vermont law further requires that certain professionals listed in 33 V.S.A. § 6903 report within 48 hours to the Vermont Department of Disability, Aging, and Independent Living any incident arising as to which there is reasonable cause to believe a vulnerable adult has been abused or neglected by calling the Abuse Reporting Hotline at 1-800-564-1612. In addition, to protect optimally the safety of vulnerable adults who are participating in University programs and activities, the University requires any employee who has reasonable cause to believe that a vulnerable adult participating in such program or activity has been abused or neglected to report the concern promptly to the Department of Disability, Aging, and Independent Living and UVM Police Services. You need not have proof that abuse or neglect has occurred. Any uncertainty in deciding whether to report suspected abuse or neglect should be resolved in favor of making a good faith report. \(^3\) The University presumes as a matter of policy that incidents of relationship violence and stalking constitute a continuing threat of harm to the targeted individual, thereby requiring notification of UVM Police Services, including names of the individuals involved, to maximize both personal and campus safety, unless such notification by the UVM Reporter is constrained by law (e.g. doctor-patient confidentiality).

harassment. Information on confidential and non-confidential resources is set out in the Contacts section of this Policy.

Compilation of Statistics for Annual Safety and Security Report
UVM Police Services is responsible for the collection and compilation of crime statistics for Clery qualifying crimes, including hate crimes, through exercise of their traditional duties, working relationships with area law enforcement agencies, affirmative outreach to law enforcement agencies serving the University’s non-campus property outside of Vermont, and receipt of CSA Reporting Forms through www.uvm.edu/police/csa.

In addition, UVM Police Services shall query UVM Responsible Officials for campus conduct processes at the close of each calendar year as to violations of state and local ordinances (drug abuse, liquor, and weapons law) occurring within Clery Geography for inclusion within the Annual Security Report, including: (1) the number, (2) location within Clery Geography, and (3) classification of violations (e.g. drug, liquor, or weapons laws). UVM Police Services, in cooperation with local law enforcement agencies, shall track arrests of the same. UVM Reporters must contact the appropriate campus disciplinary body – Center for Student Conduct (Students); College of Medicine Office of Student Affairs (COM Students); Human Resource Services (Faculty and Staff) – in accordance with applicable University policies, when witness to violations of liquor, drug abuse or weapons laws, or UVM policies concerning the same.
