Leaping Lamb Farm, Alsea Oregon

Raising lamb since 2003 and hosting overnight guests since 2007 on our farm

Leaping Lamb Farm, originally homesteaded in 1862, is a small family farm and farm stay located in a quiet creek valley of the Coast Range, Oregon. We are 40 miles from the ocean and 25 miles from the university town of Corvallis.

Farm Stay

We invite guests to stay overnight on our farm, either in the farm cottage that sleeps six, or our farm house that sleeps twelve, offering a retreat from city life.

Books by Scottie Jones

Both of Scottie's books are available at the farm & online. Country Grit: A Farmoir of Finding Purpose and Love and Paco, the Dusty Donkey... give them a look!

Farm Tours & Photo Shoots

We offer small group tours for a personal experience. See the animals, tour the farm, hike in the woods, play in the barn, have a picnic. Relax & enjoy our beautiful setting!

Farm Stay

COVID-19 Notice

We are open and accepting bookings for lodging and tours. All farm staff are fully vaccinated. Please call 541-487-4966 (Pacific) with questions.

Follow us on Facebook and Instagram to see this year's lambs and goat kids!

We invite guests to stay overnight on our farm, either in the farm cottage that sleeps up to six or our farm house that sleeps up to twelve, offering a retreat from city life, country quiet (with a lazy rooster alarm clock), trails for hiking, the gentle Honey Grove Creek running through our property, and lots of room to roam. Activities include feedings, egg collection, and any of our farm chores that interest you; however, participation is always optional!

Both the cottage and farm house include a do-it-yourself continental breakfast, with cereals, fruits, bread, juice, milk, coffee, teas, waffle/pancake mix for self-preparation, and anything else you can think to whip up from the provisions in the cupboard and fridge. We provide basics such as sugar, salt & pepper, seasonings, honey, syrup, flour, oils, etc. You are more than welcome to source eggs and other produce from us, as available, to add to your meals. (If you need to shop before you arrive, we have a blog post with some grocery store information.)

The kitchens are fully equipped with appliances, cookware, and utensils. A washer and dryer are also provided for your use in both locations.

Download the Leaping Lamb Farm Terms & Conditions and Privacy Policy.

Booking a stay constitutes agreement with these policies and acknowledgement that you have received them.

All room rates subject to 4.5% Oregon lodging tax. A reservation/security deposit of one night's stay is required at booking.

Overview

Leaping Lamb Farm is located in a quiet creek valley of the Coast Range, Oregon, 40 miles from the ocean and 25 miles from the university town of Corvallis.

Our small family farm was originally homesteaded in 1862. We raise sheep and hay, and have an abundance of other domesticated animals (chickens, turkeys, ducks, horse, donkey, peacock, dog, cats) and wildlife on the property.

You are invited to assist in feedings and egg collection and to partake in any of our farming chores in which you have interest. Or not! The farm is a retreat from city life. We can promise country quiet (with a lazy rooster alarm clock), trails for hiking, the gentle Honey Grove Creek running through our property, and lots of room to roam.
