

Curriculum Vitae

Jacqueline Barbara Carr, Ph.D., Phi Beta Kappa
Associate Professor, Department of History, University of Vermont

Education

1998 PhD: University of California, Berkeley (Early America, Early Modern England)
1992 MA: History, California State University, Sacramento (United States)
1989 BA University of California, Berkeley (History) Phi Beta Kappa, 1989

Teaching Positions Held

Associate Professor of History, University of Vermont
Assistant Professor of History, University of Vermont (2004-2008)
Assistant Professor of History, California State University, Sacramento (2002-2004)
Assistant Professor of History, California State University, Fresno (1998-2002)
Instructor, Sacramento City Community College, Sacramento, California (1991-1997)

Teaching Areas:

Colonial British North America, American Revolution; Early Republic; Women's History;
Social and Cultural History of Early America; British Atlantic.
On-Line Courses: Women's Voices from the Civil War; U.S. History to 1865

Research Interests:

Local, regional, social, and cultural history of New England during the Colonial/Revolutionary era and Early Republic; material culture; current research project examines the lives of women in New England port cities with an emphasis upon those who were members of merchant families, middle-class women who worked as partners with their merchant spouses, and unmarried/widowed women who owned mercantile businesses.

Publications (Peer Reviewed):

- "Local History and the Vermont Borderlands, 1790-1820" Vermont History April, 2016
- "Marketing Gentility: Boston's Businesswomen 1780-1830" New England Quarterly, March, 2009
- After the Siege: A Social History of Boston, 1775-1800. Northeastern University Press, Boston, Massachusetts, 2005 (University Press of New England)
- "A Change 'as remarkable as the Revolution Itself': Boston's Demographics, 1780-1800," New England Quarterly, December 2000

Other Publications:

Encyclopedia:

- "Immigration in Eighteenth-Century America" The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia of the American Enlightenment (London: Bloomsbury Academic, 2015)
- "Population in Eighteenth-Century America" The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia of the American Enlightenment (London: Bloomsbury Academic, 2015)

Invited Book Reviews:

- Erik Hinderaker, Boston's Massacre (Harvard University Press, 2017) American Historical Review forthcoming 2018)
- Cornelia H. Dayton and Sharon V. Salinger, Robert Love's Warnings: Searching for Strangers in Colonial Boston. (Early American Studies.) (Philadelphia: University of Pennsylvania Press, 2014) for the American Historical Review February 2015.
- Hannah Crocker, Reminiscences and Traditions of Boston. Edited by Eileen Hunt Botting and Sarah L. Houser. (New England Historic Genealogical Society 2011) for the New England Quarterly June, 2012.
- Ruma Chopra, Unnatural Rebellion: Loyalists in New York City during the Revolution. (Jeffersonian America.) (University of Virginia Press. 2011) for the American Historical Review December 2012.
- Michael Rawson, Eden on the Charles: The Making of Boston (Harvard: 2010) for Environment and History for Environmental History April, 2011.
- Brendan McConville, The King's Three Faces: The Rise and Fall of Royal America, 1668-1776 (University of North Carolina: 2006) for the New England Historical Association News Spring, 2008.
- Colin G. Calloway, The Scratch of a Pen: 1763 and the Transformation of North America (Oxford 2006) for the New England Historical Association News Spring, 2008.
- Sheldon S. Cohen, British Supporters of the American Revolution, 1775-1783: The Role of the 'Middling-Level' Activists (Boydell Press 2004) for The Historian Fall, 2006.
- Jon Sensbach, Rebecca's Revival: Creating Black Christianity in the Atlantic World (Harvard 2005) for the New England Historical Association News Fall, 2005.
- Lori Ginzburg, Untidy Origins: A Story of Women's Rights in Antebellum New York (University of North Carolina Press 2005) for H-Shear (Society for Historians of the Early Republic) on H-Net (Humanities Network) October, 2005.
- Richard Middleton, Colonial America: A History 1607-1760. 3d ed. (Oxford, UK: Blackwell Publishers 2002) for H-Net August, 2004.

Local History/Museum Publications (not peer reviewed):

- "Women's Social Clubs: Intellectual Havens for Victorian Women" Interchange (quarterly journal of the Sacramento Commission of History and Science, CA), Winter 1992.

Selected Conference Papers, Panel Facilitation, Public Lectures

- Chair/Comment: "Creating the Early American Republic" New England Historical Association Spring 2018
- Chair/Comment: "Crime, Community, and Economy along the United States Northern Borderland" New England Historical Association Spring 2016
- Paper presented "Why Community Studies Still Matter: A Case Study from the Early Nineteenth-Century Frontier" New England Historical Association, Spring 2014 Conference.

- Chair/Comment for panel “Cultural and Consciousness during the American Revolutionary Era” New England Historical Association Spring 2014 Conference.
- Chair/Comment for panel “New Perspective on Slavery and Indentured Servitude”, New England Historical Association, Fall 2014 Conference.
- Lecturer and Workshop Facilitator on “The American Revolution and the Early National Economy” for seminar program “Turning Points in American History: Knowledge, Understanding and Perspective” for Champlain Valley Unified School District, U.S. Department of Education, Federal Grant Project in Teaching American History. (2011)
- Paper presented “The Procurement, Marketing, and Selling of Women’s Fashion Goods ” Dublin Seminar of New England Folklife, sponsored by Boston University and Historic Deerfield, June 2010.
- Lecturer and Workshop Facilitator: “Teaching Beyond the Whig Interpretation of the American Revolution”, for seminar program “The Legacy of the American, French, and Haitian Revolutions: Liberty, Freedom, and Equality” at Castleton State College. U.S. Department of Education, Teaching American History Federal Grant Project in Teaching American History. September, 2007
- Paper presented, “ ‘She hopes to get a Living yet for her Fatherless Children’: Women, Work, and Property in Early Republic Boston,” Massachusetts Historical Society, Boston Area Early American History Seminar, 2006.
- Public lecture, “The Presidency of George Washington,” Hildene Winter History Series on American Presidents, Manchester Center, Vermont, 2005.
- Panel chair, “Disease and Death in Late Eighteenth- and Early Nineteenth-Century America,” New England Historical Association Conference, 2005.
- Panel commentator, “Commercial Landscapes,” Tenth Annual Omohundro Institute of Early American History and Culture, Smith College, Northampton & Deerfield, Massachusetts, 2004.
- Paper presented “ ‘A Change as Remarkable as the Revolution Itself’: Boston’s Demographics, 1780-1800”, Bay Area Seminar of History and Culture, Berkeley, California, 2001.
- Paper presented “Our ‘provincialisms’ are ‘so disgusting to strangers’” Remaking Boston’s Identity in the Early Republic” paper presented at the Western Social Science Association Conference, Las Vegas, Nevada, 2001.
- Paper presented “Popular Culture in the Early American City,” paper presented at the California State University History Symposium, sponsored by CA State University Fresno, 1999.
- Panel commentator “The Revolution and Revolutionaries,” at the California State University History Symposium, sponsored by CA State University Fresno, California, 1999.
- Paper presented “Rope Dancers, Balance Masters, and Virtuous Citizens: The Great Theater Debate in Boston 1790-1795,” Nineteenth Annual Mid-America Conference on History, University of Kansas & Washburn University, Kansas, 1996

Theses Supervised at the University of Vermont

- “ ‘The Nest of Tories Which Has Invested This Precinct’: The Loyalists of Newburgh, New York” 2016 M.A. Thesis

- “Crisscrossing the State: A Study of Roads in Early Vermont” 2011 M.A. Thesis
- “Women’s Activism and the Construction of Identity in Antebellum Boston and Philadelphia, 1830-1860” 2009 M.A. Thesis
- “Vision and Division in a Frontier Community: Burlington, Vermont 1790-1820” 2007 M.A. Thesis
- “The Birth of Empire: The Foundations of English Mercantilism in Sixteenth- and Seventeenth-Century North America” 2011 Undergraduate Honors Thesis
- “Defining White Female Gender Roles: the Work of the Puritan Captivity Narrative” 2010 Undergraduate Honors Thesis

Community Service Lectures and Programs:

- Public Lecture “Louisa May Alcott’s Boston: The Social Reform that Shaped Her Work” presented at the Brownell Library, Essex Junction Vermont as part of a National Endowment for the Humanities grant for libraries fostering public education. (2011)
- Public lecture “Searching for Early America: Reconstructing the Early Years of the New Nation” Vermont Humanities Council annual lecture series, March, 2008.
- Guest on “Preservation Burlington” Channel 17, Burlington, “Teaching and Writing Social History.” (2006)
- “African-American Women in Eighteenth-Century New England,” at the Brownell Public Library, Essex Junction, Vermont. (2006)
- “Here are fanatics almost without number’: Religious Pluralism in Colonial America,” at the Brownell Public Library, Essex Junction, Vermont. (2005)
- “Abigail Adams’ Boston,” at the Brownell Public Library, Essex Junction, Vermont. (2005)
- Committee Member for Assessment of History and Single Subject Credential Program for California State University, Sacramento. (2002-2003)
- Designed Courses for Department of Education to meet upper-division Liberal Arts Multiple Subject Major compliance with California State mandates, California State University, Sacramento. (2002)
- Interim Director, federally funded San Joaquin History/Social Science Project for public school teachers. Organized university educational programs, public lectures, support groups for K-12 teachers, California State University, Fresno. (2000)
- “Women’s Lives in Civil War America,” presented for the National Civil War Association and the Fresno County Historical Society “Civil War Revisited” (2001)
- “Daily Life in Civil War America,” presented for the National Civil War Association and the Fresno County Historical Society “Civil War Revisited” (2000)
- “Women and the American Revolution,” presented at the San Joaquin Valley History & Social Science Project Standards Workshop; a federal grant program funding lectures and programs presented by university professors for middle and secondary school teachers. (1999)

Public History Experience: Exhibitions Curated

- Project Historian and Curator for “Nineteenth-Century Women's Clubs” honoring the Centennial of the Kingsley Art Club (Sacramento History Museum, California) 1992.

- Project Historian for “Continuing Traditions: African-Americans in Sacramento 1940-1990” (Sacramento History Museum, California) 1991.
- Assistant Curator for “Treasures of Egypt” (San Francisco Airports Commission, California) 1989.
- Assistant Curator for “American Eskimo and Northwest Coast Indian Art” (San Francisco Airports Commission, California) 1989.
- Assistant Registrar, Phoebe Hearst Museum of Anthropology, University of California, Berkeley (training in museum exhibit preparation) 1986-1988.

Fellowships and Awards:

- Chittenden County Historical Society Research Funding, Vermont, 2008
- Humanities Center Research Assistantship, University of Vermont, 2007
- Humanities Center Research Assistantship, University of Vermont, 2006
- Dean’s Fund for Faculty Development, University of Vermont, 2006
- Nelson Faculty Development Fund Grant, University of Vermont, 2006
- Research, Scholarship, & Creativity Award, California State University, Fresno, 2002
- Faculty Development Award, California State University, Fresno, 2001
- Mellon Foundation Dissertation Write-Up Fellowship, 1998
- Mellon Foundation Dissertation Write-Up Fellowship, 1997
- Phi Beta Kappa Dissertation Fellowship, 1997
- University of California, Berkeley Humanities Graduate Research Fellowship, 1996
- Mellon Foundation Dissertation Fellowship, University of California, Berkeley, 1993
- George H. Guttridge Prize in Colonial American Studies, 1993
- Hotchkiss Fellowship, University of California, Berkeley, 1992-1997
- Phi Alpha Theta History Honors Society. California State University, Sacramento 1992
- Los Rios Community College District Teaching Internship Award, Sacramento, CA 1991
- Phi Beta Kappa, University of California, Berkeley 1989
- Delta Kappa Gamma Society Scholarship for Future Teachers 1986

Professional Service

- Executive Committee Member, Center for Research on Vermont 2015-2018
- Executive Committee Member, New England Historical Association 2011-2014
- New England Historical Association Book Award Committee 2006
- Invited manuscript evaluator: University Press of New England 2016; Yale University Press 2007.

University Service

University of Vermont

- Student Accessibility Services: Faculty Advisory Committee 2005-present
- Center for Research on Vermont, Executive Committee member. 2015-2018
- Department Curriculum Assessment Committee, Fall 2018
- Department of History Graduate Committee 2017-present
- Member, University Committee for Teacher Education (UCTE), UVM 2008-2016

- Graduate Faculty Member, UVM 2004-present
- Director of Undergraduate Studies, Coordinator of Transfer Affairs, Study Abroad 2012-2016
- Member College of A&S Lattie Coor Faculty Development Awards Committee 2011-2013
- Committee Member, Alpha of Vermont, Phi Beta Kappa 2011-2012
- Interim Member College of Arts & Science Curriculum Committee 2010-2011
- Department of History Undergraduate Committee 2011
- Member, Graduate Committee, Department of History, UVM 2007-2010
- Member, Chair's Executive Committee, Department of History, UVM 2007-2008
- Interim Member Faculty Senate: History Dept. Representative (Fall Semester) UVM 2006
- Undergraduate History Committee, UVM 2006-2007
- CAS and TAP representative to Admitted Student Visitation Days, UVM 2005-2008, 2015-2016
- Phi Alpha Theta History Honors Society, Faculty Advisor, UVM 2004-2007
- History Dept. & Center for Teaching Learning "History 11/12 Web Project", UVM 2004-2007

California State University

- Committee for CA Commission on Teaching Standards for Single Subject Social Science
 - Credential Program CSU Sacramento 2003-2004
- Search Committee Member for United States faculty position, CSU Sacramento 2003
- Member, Committee of the Whole for Hiring CSU Sacramento 2003
- Graduate Committee, CSU, Sacramento 2002-2003
- Phi Alpha Theta Honors Society Faculty Adviser; established Alpha Kappa Beta
 - Chapter CSU Fresno 2001-2002
- Curriculum Committee, CSU Fresno 2001-2002
- James Madison National Endowment Fellowship Program Adviser, CSU Fresno 2000-2002

Professional Memberships:

- Society for Historians of the Early Republic
- American Association of State and Local History
- Omohundro Institute of Early American History and Culture
- New England Historical and Genealogical Society
- Maine Historical Society
- Vermont Historical Society