State 4-H Bovine Bonanza

Saturday, November 9, 2019

85 South Prospect Street, Waterman Building, 4th floor
University of Vermont Campus, Burlington, Vermont

This event was formerly known as Dairy Challenge, and is now the “State 4-H Bovine Bonanza” to incorporate working steer and beef! For senior dairy members (ages 14 to 18) this will still be one of the events that you may choose to participate in to meet the state level requirement.

Parking: Entrance to parking is off College Street (not South Prospect), directly behind the Waterman Building.

Cost: $2.00 per participant. Open to all 4-H youth ages 8 to 18 as of January 1, 2019. If you turned 8 anytime this year (2019), please come and participate as this contest counts for the new 4-H year.

Registration: 9:30—10:00 a.m.

To request a disability-related accommodation to participate in this program, please contact Wendy Sorrell at 802-651-8343 ext. 513 or 800-571-0668 by October 18, 2019 so we may assist you.

- The Bonanza starts at 10:00 a.m. (goal is to finish by 3:30 p.m.).
- Bring your own lunch and drinks.
- Come join in the fun and test your knowledge of all things bovine.
- Participants will be divided into four age groups: 8-9, 10-11, 12-13, 14 and older.
- There will be four different classrooms set up. Each room will have a short, instructed learning session followed by a written quiz to test what you learned. The sessions will be on just about anything related to bovine.
- Awards will be presented at the conclusion of the Bonanza.
