

Historic Preservation Program Course Descriptions - Fall 2015

- HP 200A HISTORY OF AMERICAN ARCHITECTURE (90318)
Study of architectural history to gain fluency in the stylistic terms so essential to historic preservation and to public support for conserving our architectural heritage.
Prerequisite: HP 1 grad or instructor's permission. Degree students only even after level restrictions removed; CE students register for HP 200 ZRA.
3 Hours MCCULLOUGH, Robert MW 3:30-4:45
- HP 205A HISTORIC PRESERVATION LAW (91336)
Legal issues in conservation of the built environment. Basis legal techniques for protection of historic structures (historic districts, protective legislation, easements, covenants). Study of significant court decisions.
Prerequisite: Degree students only after level restrictions removed; CE students register for HP205 ZRA
3 Hours MCCULLOUGH, Robert TR 4:25-5:40
- HP 206A RESEARCHING HISTORIC STRUCTURES/SITES (90327)
Methods for researching historic structures and sites using archival and physical evidence, deciphering archaic building technologies, and documenting structures through professional reports, architectural photography, measured drawings.
Prerequisites: HP majors or permission only.
3 Hours VISSER, Thomas W 12:00-3:00
- HP 302A COMMUNITY PRESERVATION PROJECT (90329)
Third-semester graduate students apply developed professional skills to actual community preservation problems. Projects include strategy development, securing and allocating funds, research, advocacy, and implementation.
Prerequisites: HP 2 Grad only.
3 Hours MCCULLOUGH, Robert R 1:15-4:15
- HP 303A GRADUATE HP INTERNSHIP (90332)
Participants will gain experience working in the preservation field as an employee of an appropriate institution or agency, typically over the summer months. During the fall semester, students prepare professional reports and make formal presentations about their completed internship work.
Prerequisite: HP 2 Grad only.
3 Hours VISSER, Thomas

HP 307A ARCHITECTURAL CONSERVATION II (90978)
A continuation of Architectural Conservation I, emphasizing an integrated examination of historic preservation and architectural conservation through lectures, seminars, and field and laboratory research projects.
Prerequisite: HP 2 Grad only.
3 Hours VISSER, Thomas T 1:15-4:15

HP 391A MASTER'S THESIS RESEARCH (90338)
Prerequisite: Instructor permission.
1-6 Hours VISSER, Thomas

HP 397A SPECIAL READINGS & RESEARCH (91279)
Prerequisite: HP Grad standing; permission.
1-6 Hours VISSER, Thomas