

2019 10TH ANNUAL HOP CONFERENCE

It's our 10th Anniversary for our annual Hop Conference! Please join us on Thursday, February 21, 2019 to help us celebrate! We will be meeting from 9am to 4:30pm at the DoubleTree by Hilton (formerly known as the Sheraton Hotel) in Burlington, VT.

Tom Spilsbury, a British hop grower of J W Spilsbury & Co., will be joining us and sharing information on English hop production, as well as processing (kiln, dry strategies, etc.).

You will also hear from Blake Crosby of Crosby Hop Farm in Oregon on hop production, processing and marketing in the Pacific Northwest, including his experiences with hop hash and pelletizing. Gene L'Etoile of Four Star Farms in MA will share his experiences with disease and pest management, and Todd Haire from Foam Brewers will provide a hands on sensory analysis for hops. You will also receive updated hop research from UVM.

We are planning two breakout session opportunities including a virtual training tool demo for hop scouting, and beer sensory analysis led by Switchback Brewery.

Deadline for registration is February 15.
