2020 Vermont No-Till and Cover Crop Symposium
 Wednesday, February 26, 2020
8:30am to 4:30pm
Double Tree by Hilton Conference Center, Burlington, Vermont

The University of Vermont Extension Agronomy teams in Middlebury and St. Albans would like to welcome you as a Sponsor or Exhibitor for our 2020 No-Till and Cover Crop Symposium.

Attached is the Sponsor and Exhibitor Reservation Form with the detailed information on how to participate. Your response no later than January 29, 2020 will enable your organization to be included in the event advertising in addition to the conference proceedings.

Featured speakers are: David Brandt from Carroll, Ohio and Scott Magnan of Scott Magnan’s Custom Services, St. Albans, Vermont. The symposium offers farmer discussions, research updates, and plenty of opportunities to visit with farmer friends and the many conference sponsors with table exhibits.

It’s the perfect venue for connecting directly with your customers and clientele. Become a Sponsor Today! If you have any further questions or concerns, please contact us at (802) 388-4969.

Thank you!
