Please complete the reference below and return it to the applicant in a sealed envelope or submit online to honors.college@uvm.edu.

Part I: Mentor Position Information for referees.

Peer Mentors (PMs) are leaders within the Honors College community and provide key support and advising for first year students as they navigate the transition from high school to college. Each PM serves a group of approximately 10 to 15 students, clustered according to academic major, during their first year in the Honors College. PMs work collaboratively to plan programs and to facilitate first-year student academic development. Mentors work closely with the HCOL Academic Advisor and are considered essential partners in the College’s advising efforts.

The search committee is particularly interested in the mentor applicant’s:
  o Ability to communicate effectively
  o Ability to lead
  o General character
